VOLUME IV.

VASHON, KING COUNTY, WASHINGTON, THURSDAY, APRIL 8, 1920.

NUMBER 25.

BURTON

Mrs. L. L. Grandy and children are at their Burton home for the week.

Mr. and Mrs. Fletcher of Seattle spent Easter with their aunt, Mrs. Etta McNair.

Mr. Chas. Akehurst is at Tenino, Wash., where he went on Monday to work for some time.

C. B. Kline of Auburn has contracted to clear 4 acres on the F. O. Lamoreux place at Judd creek, now owned by W. C. Smith of Seattle.

The Gleason family left on Saturday to visit several places to find a desirable location to establish a little business. They will be in Burton again a short time before moving.

Mr. Norman Edson, photographer, has moved his family from Tacoma to the Baptist parsonage and expects to be a permanent resident of Burton, if the business outlook justifies.

Two McLean vans were in Burton on Friday night to move the J. M. Armstrong family and household goods to Tacoma. They left on the 10:00 o'clock ferry via Portage on Saturday morning.

Miss Allison, the county health nurse, was over from Seattle on Tuesday, inspecting throats of all the high school students, and in the afternoon they were dismissed and the building thoroughly fumigated.

Mr. and Mrs. E. M. Ford are back in their Newport home. They spent the winter in Los Angeles.

Sylvia and Vivian Aldrich were over from Tacoma on Friday to help Miss Opal Akehurst celebrate her twelfth birthday.

Mrs. C. R. Forbes entertained the Klos Tillicum Club at her Newport home on Thursday. Besides the Club members, a few invited guests gathered to meet Mrs. McGary, Mrs. Forbes' mother.

Mrs. J. M. Staples and little son returned home from Bainbridge Island on Saturday, where they have been for some time for Mrs. Staples' health, which is improved. Miss Alice Staples met her mother in Seattle and returned with her.

The Vashon Island Woman's Club was entertained at the home of Mrs. A. J. Van House on Tuesday afternoon. An interesting paper on "American Authors," by Mrs. Sturges, followed by discussion of same, was part of the program.

The "Ella A." the ship launched from the Dockton shipyard sometime ago, which was finished in Seattle and was to be loaded at Everett, had some of her planking damaged, and is back at Dockton for repairs.

We are glad to report that Miss Muriel Vye, who has diphtheria, is recovering speedily. The place is quarantined and every precaution taken to prevent spreading. The high school teachers have rooms at the home of Mrs. George Taylor during the quarantine.

Mrs. Etta McNair has purchased the Pritchard cottage, next to Mrs. May Gammell's home, and will move in as soon as vacated. In the meantime she will occupy W. C. Whitfield's house on Main Street. We are glad to learn that city life has no attractions for Mrs. McNair, and that she had no intention of leaving the Island, as intimated in last week's locals. Burton, she says, is to be her home.

Prof. Waldron of the Logan school, Tacoma, gave a moving picture entertainment at Burton high on Friday evening of last week, which was entertaining and educational. Eight dollars was the sum netted by the high school. Our high school hopes to have a picture machine of their own next year.

The little Misses Jeane Stone and Marcia Forbes celebrated their birthdays the Saturday before Easter at both their homes. The twenty-six invited guests were entertained and kept busy egg hunting, listening to victrola music, and admiring the little hostesses, who were dressed to represent bonnie rabbits. On the departure of the little folks, each one was given an individual basket filled with dainty lunch, which was enjoyed on the way home.

NOTICE

A Republican caucus of the Burton precinct will be held at the home of Frank Emmons this Saturday evening, April 10th.

COVE

Mr. Frank Johnson has been quite sick for some time now.

Mr. Holmes has just received 1200 baby chicks from the Siegrist Hatchery.

D. H. Ramstad came over from the city to spend the week with his family.

Mr. P. Patten has been making some pews for the M. E. church—working overtime at night. He ought to get rich.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Elden have been having quite a treat in the way of tender, crisp asparagus, fresh from their own garden.

Mr. Sam Ellingson has just returned from California, looking as good as ever. We hope he brought some of the sunny climate along.

Mrs. C. A. Renouf is feeling quite proud of her success in winning the first prize of $5.00 in the Seattle Star's economy receipt contest.

Mr. and Mrs. Yeager are nicely domiciled in their new home. Mr. Y. is busy clearing. Has built a new fence and planted a fine garden in front.

Miss Helma Matheson, daughter of Mr. Gabe Matheson, is very low with consumption, and little hope of her recovery. It is sad to see a fair young girl, just blossoming into womanhood, so afflicted.

Mr. Victor Servald and little daughters were in the city last Wednesday. I wonder if he was getting them some of those fine Easter hats seen in the windows.

Called on Mrs. Baker. Found her chasing around in her big chicken yard gathering duck eggs. You may fix up a nice place as you please for the ducks to lay in, but they suit themselves, she says.

Mr. Covell is busy putting out strawberry and red raspberry plants. He has improved the looks of his ranch very much in removing the old picket fence in front and barping the weeds and ferns. There are a lot of others who might do likewise to good advantage.

Mr. Albin Sundberg has accepted a position at our Cove store. Mr. P. A. Petersen has been rushed so lately with so much business was compelled to employ more help. Albin falls nicely in line, as he worked a good many years under E. O. Rindal, former owner of the store.

Mr. W. G. Doyle returned last week from the Methow Valley and Wenatchee, after taking Mrs. Dandy's little girl there, who will spend the summer with her sister, Mrs. Ray Sackett, while Mr. D. goes to California with some other

TRACT SELECTED AND SET ASIDE BY STATE LAND COMMISSIONER

State Land Commissioner C. V. Savidge of Olympia was the guest of F. M. Sherman and others on Friday of last week. Mr. Savidge made the trip to the Island to definitely fix the location of a public park, a matter over which he has jurisdiction and which has been held in abeyance for several months, until he could find time to personally inspect the tracts that were under consideration. The selection of five acres along the north side of the C. A. Barton interested parties to work his gold mine. We'll have a millionaire in Cove one of these days.

Mr. and Mrs. Renouf enjoyed a nice visit from Mr. Lenferty of Victoria. B. C. Len is one of those jolly good fellows it does one's heart good to meet. He spoke of his experience with the custom office when they felt a box of chocolates in his pocket—they thought they had him. When lunching, some Seattlites heard he was from Victoria, and quizzed him as to having a bottle. The funny part being that Mr. L. never touches "the stuff" in any shape.

Mr. E. O. Thomason butchered nine young pigs last week. They were a mighty fine bunch, uniform in size. He received one cent per pound above the market price for them. It was a pretty fast quartet that did the work. Mr. Knute Paulson done the skinning and dressing. A. Abrams, Bert Moore and P. Patten were the other members. Finished at 2:00 p.m. Some swift work.

The writer was in Vashon last week. Called on our old neighbor, B. D. Mukai. Found him very busy planting strawberries. Remarked he had three more acres to plant to finish his 65 acres. He has bought a fine tractor cultivator—paid $300 for it with the attachments. He has a mighty fine field of berry vines.

Mrs. Frank Sigrist entertained on Saturday for her daughters.

There has been nearly a carload of new furniture unloaded the past week on our dock. Some folks may be pretty cute and sly all right, but this shipping goods in a brother's name who runs a store but don't handle furniture—you can't throw dust in our eyes, just the same—it won't work.

Wedding Bells

It is with much pleasure we chronicle the marriage of one of our popular young men, Mr. Axel Petersen, of Cove, to Miss Grace McIntosh of Portage, March 30th, at 4:30 p.m. in Seattle, at the First Presbyterian church. The Rev. Dr. Matthews officiated. A very quiet wedding, only the members of the bride's family being present: her father, Mr. John McIntosh, and Mr. and Mrs. John McIntosh, Jr. The bride carried a hand bouquet of roses and was gowned in a brown traveling suit.

At 6:30 p.m. a wedding dinner was enjoyed at Blane's cafe. The bridal couple left on the 11:00 p.m. boat for Vancouver, B. C., where the honeymoon was spent among friends of the bride. They are staying temporarily in Rev. Verdie's cottage in Beulah Park, until the cottage on the waterfront recently purchased by the groom from the Hanson brothers can be vacated. Now, congratulations may be all right, but are not strong enough. All Cove wishes the bridal couple bushels of happiness and good luck through life.

Lisabuela's base ball team has contested the diamond with Burton on two different occasions recently, winning over the visiting team each time.

Mr. Claude Howard of Tacoma visited his parents last week. He made the Des Moines ferry in 23 minutes from Tacoma, on his speedometer—or rather motorcycle.

There is one girl in Lisabuela who just had to get an Easter bonnet. As Miss Signe Hammer was going over to Seattle one day last week her hat blew off in the Sound and a new hat was the consequence. "It's an ill wind that blows nobody good."

Miss Beth McCarthy of Vashon was a guest overnight recently of Miss Margaret Hoover. They attended the birthday surprise party on Alice Bullard, which was held at her parents' home on her 19th birthday, March 31st. A large crowd of young people attended and all reported having had a fine time.

Clarence Hennig of Seattle spent the week end visiting his cousin, Fred Hiersch.

Mr. Arthur Shane of Winnipeg, Canada, spent last week visiting his cousin, Mrs. A. H. Hiersch. He left on Sunday for Portland, Ore., where he is working for a newspaper. He was very much im-

Miss Bessie Dean returned on Sunday evening from Emma Lake where she spent part of her vacation with her friend, Miss Mand Hook, at the home of the latter's parents.

Miss Lucy Meyers was accompanied back from Bellingham by her sister, Miss Katharine, who delighted the congregation on Sunday evening by singing two solos. She has a beautiful voice, and is paid soloist in one of the churches in her home city.

Mr. and Mrs. L. Turnbull, Sr., have moved into their new home at Burton which they recently purchased from Mrs. McNair. We are sorry to lose such good neighbors, but hope they will like their new residence.

A reader of national publications gets a wholesome impression of Western Oregon and Washington from the advertisements of jam plants and canneries which are advertising their products and thus developing the small fruit industries of these states. The advertising of these firms is turning the eyes of thousands of people toward the western valleys of Washington and Oregon where the five acre berry farms are netting their owners more than the average 160 acre ranch did a few years ago.

Any section with berry acreage and a cannery within shipping distance is assured of rapid development.

MARNE MEMORIAL POSTER

JUST as the school children of France gave for their country's gift to the United States—the Statue of Liberty—so will American school children contribute "one cent and upward" for "America's Gift to France," a monumental statue by Frederick MacMonnies, the noted American sculptor. Mr. MacMonnies is contributing his services toward the monument which, it is estimated, will cost $250,000.

The poster shown herewith, is by Albert Sterner, noted American portrait painter. It typifies the tribute which this country will pay to the French through the Marne monument. The poster will be displayed in cities, towns, and villages, and will designate many of the places where contributions may be made during the week of March 22—a free-will offering, in which numbers of contributors, rather than size of contributions, will be sought from school children and others.

Contributions are now being received at National Headquarters, 150 Nassau Street, New York, by Charles H. Satin, president of one of New York's largest trust companies, who is treasurer of the fund.

The memorial will be erected at

Pretty New York School Girl Helps Spread Appeal for Pennies for "America's Gift to France."

Meaux, on the Marne, and will rival in size and grandeur of design the Statue of Liberty.

A WORLD REBUILT

By the Golden Rule not by the rule of Gold

THIRTY denominations of the Church are uniting in a simultaneous campaign in the week of April 25th-May 2nd.

They are uniting because the task before the Church is too great for any one denomination; because there must be no duplication of effort; no waste.

These churches know that the world needs many things; but it needs Faith most of all.

They know that there can be no final solution of our economic problems that is not a spiritual solution, based on the teachings of Jesus Christ and His Golden Rule.

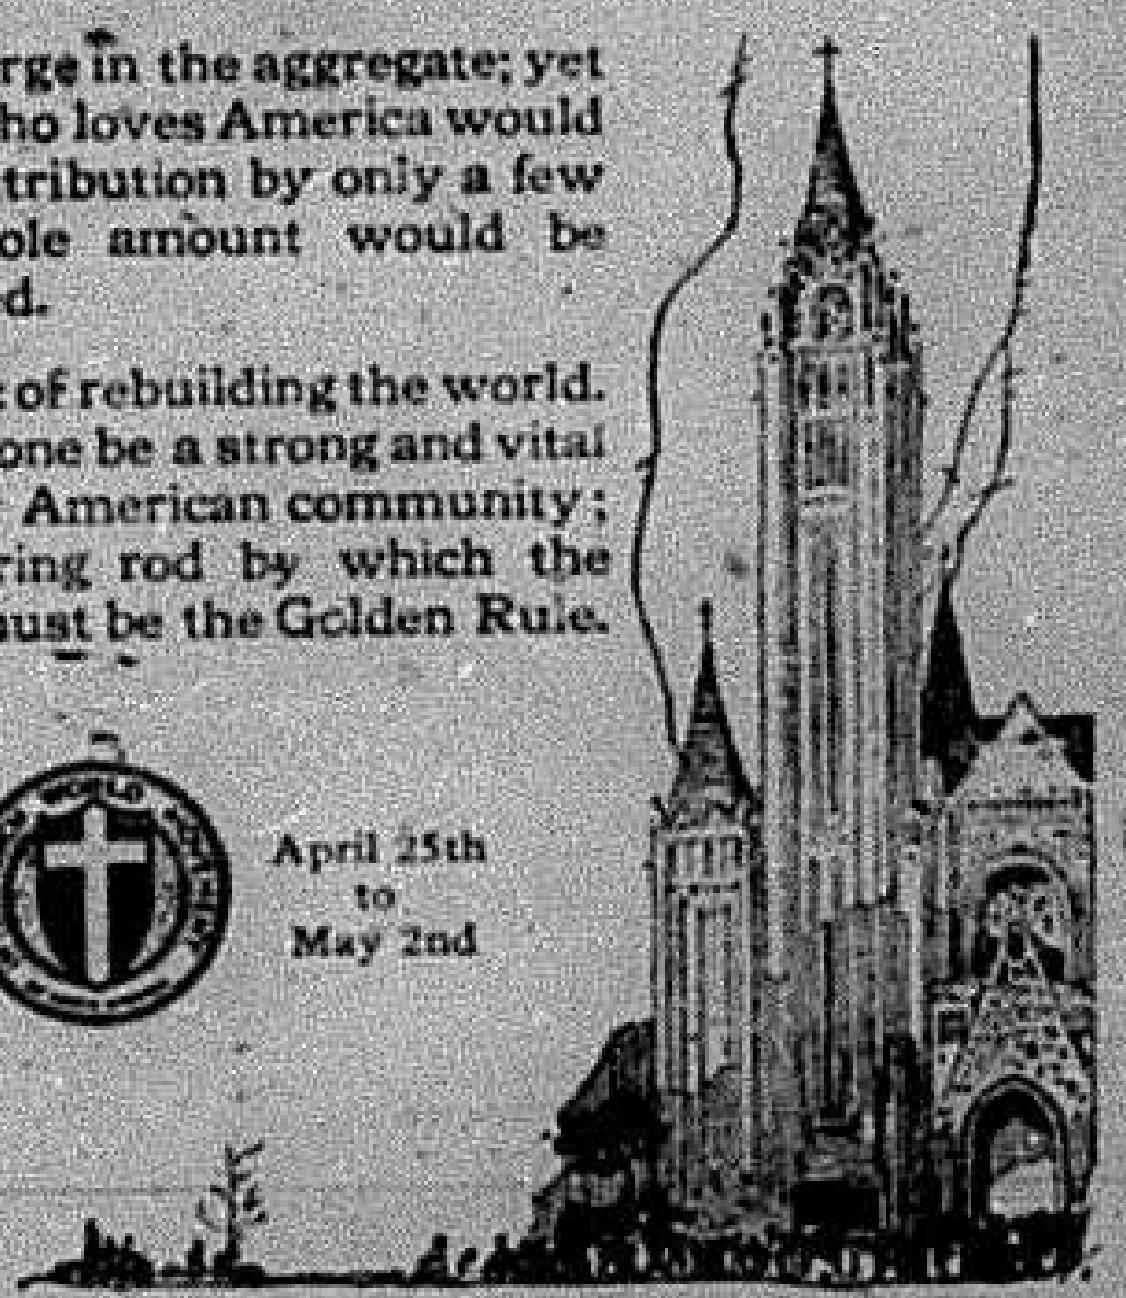

They have had the courage to survey the whole task, and to ask for a budget large enough to sustain (1) the work abroad, (2) the work at home including the church's part in the huge task of Americanization, (3) the colleges and (4) hospitals supported by the Churches, (5) the religious training of the young, and to provide (6) a living wage for the Church's ministers.

The budget is large in the aggregate; yet if each person who loves America would increase his contribution by only a few dollars the whole amount would be easily subscribed.

We face the task of rebuilding the world. Let the cornerstone be a strong and vital church in every American community; and the measuring rod by which the builders build must be the Golden Rule.

BISHOP HUGHES DIES WHILE ON TRIP EAST

Pneumonia Ends Life of Oregon Methodist Episcopal Leader.

Cleveland, O.—Bishop Matthew W. Simpson Hughes of Portland, Or., died at a hotel here Sunday of pneumonia. He had been on a lecture tour since October, spending last week addressing Lenten meetings here.

He was born in West Virginia 57 years ago. Previous to being ordained a Methodist bishop in 1916, Bishop Hughes had held pastorates at Grinnell, Ia., Portland, Me., Minneapolis, Kansas City and Pasadena, Cal.

Bishop Hughes had been suffering from a severe cold for some weeks. Last week he was advised to take a rest, but declined to cancel his Cleveland engagements. He became seriously ill Friday noon. Easter services in local Methodist churches were turned suddenly into memorials for Bishop Hughes, who had been scheduled to deliver Easter sermons in three churches.

OREGON LABOR LEADER GUILTY

Portland, Ore.—With a strongly worded recommendation for clemency, the jury which tried Joseph Laundy, Portland radical labor leader who was accused of violating the criminal syndicalism act, returned a verdict of guilty.

By their verdict, the jurymen convicted the I. W. W. as much as Laundy, for the latter was accused of a crime against the state by belonging to an organization which advocated criminal syndicalism and sabotage.

The jurors, according to the instructions laid down by Judge Bell, found that Laundy had joined the organization after it became a law with the governor's signature on February 3, 1919. They found that he had knowledge of the criminal tenets of the Industrial Workers' organization and as above stated, that the organization was one advocating criminal and revolutionary measures.

The penalty on conviction is from one to 10 years' imprisonment, a fine of $1000, or both.

UNITED STATES DEBT CUT 705 MILLIONS

Washington—A reduction of $705,000,000 in the national debt, according to a report by the treasury, was accomplished in March. The national debt now stands at $24,698,000,000.

March payments on the public debt were confined almost wholly to retiring certificates of indebtedness issued in anticipation of income and profits taxes.

As the public debt now stands it is made up of $15,618,900,000, comprising the four issues of liberty bonds; $4,422,700,000 of victory short-term notes; $2,687,220,000 in treasury certificates; $870,000,000 in war savings certificates and approximately $1,000,000,000 in bonds issued prior to the world war.

Future monthly reductions will hinge largely on new appropriations and tax legislation, officials said.

MILITARY POLICY DEFINED

Senate Clears Way for Consideration of Proposed New Legislation.

Washington.—The senate has cleared the way for consideration of legislation proposing establishment of a definite military policy. Debate on the army reorganization bill framed by the senate military committee is to begin soon and its passage in about 10 days or two weeks is predicted by senate leaders.

The bill differs radically from the house measure passed March 18, in that it provides for compulsory military training, consolidation of the national guard, regular army and reserves composed of trained men, into one citizens' army, and also for a general staff eligibility system similar to that in the French army. The house bill left the compulsory military training issue for separate legislation.

Japanese Siberia Troops Stay.
Washington—Japan is unable to draw its troops from Siberia at this time because of the danger confronting Japanese citizens in that country and the menace to Manchuria and Korea growing out of present political conditions in Siberia, according to a statement published in the Official Gazette at Tokio, which was transmitted to the state department.

MIDDLE WEST HAS BIG EASTER STORM

Washington.—The Easter storm which buried the southwest and middle west under a snow blanket spread in four directions, with a cold wave enveloping virtually all territory between the Appalachian and the Rocky mountains.

Freezing temperatures prevailed as far south as the interior of Texas and the north portions of Louisiana, Mississippi and Alabama. The Ohio valley storm, according to the weather bureau, had divided and formed two centers of disturbance, one to the northward of Lake Ontario and the other over Virginia.

In the open country of the southwest cattle were reported to have suffered. There were few official reports of crop damage, however.

While the temperature in portions of the southwest dropped as low as 25 degrees, in the central west 27 was the minimum according to reports.

Melting of the snow under the warming sun threatened floods in some streams, it was reported.

They say--

That conditions are better than they were six months ago; deliveries are better from all points; production and consumption are getting nearer together; there are fewer advances in the cost of goods and we are proportionately nearer stabilized prices:

When this point is reached, we may look for some relief in the cost of merchandise but is folly to expect it when the demand exceeds the supply all along the line.

Business is good and we want you to continue to show that same confidence in this House that you have shown in years past.

It is volume of business that makes better prices to every one of you and volume comes only where perfect confidence is established; this we have and have had for many years and we heartily thank every patron of this House for this distinction.

Missionary Notes

Letters have come to this country from Japan telling of the need of our missionaries there. Living in Tokio is higher than in New York city, and the salaries of the workers have not advanced since 1914. One lady writes that she is actually wearing rags, and begs that the new workers who are soon to go to Japan, be told that they are entering a life of abject poverty. Is not the laborer worthy of his hire? The ladies of the home church and community are asked to give all they can by the last of April to help these noble women who have given up loved ones and gone to spread the gospel of our Lord. Come prepared to give your offering on Sunday. The missionary societies all over the United States are anxious to have every lady member of the church a member of the missionary society. The dues for active members amount to only $1.35; but if you are too busy to work in the society, pay one dollar, all but two cents of which goes direct to the missionaries. The men are asked to note the dollar proposition, "Give, and it shall be given unto you." Mrs. Gebert is treasurer of the Vashon auxiliary.

features appropriate for the Easter occasion. Apart from the regular program, which was well attended, and evidently appreciated, two young people offered themselves to the church on profession of faith, and the Sacrament of the Lord's Supper fittingly crowned the whole service.

The Christian Endeavor meeting in the evening was splendidly attended and participated in with unusual interest.

Mrs. Dyer, president of the state young people's work of Washington, will speak in the church next Sunday morning at the regular preaching hour. Her address will be especially for the young people, but appropriate for all. Miss Dyer's many years of experience have afforded her with appreciable efficiency in her line of service, hence a large audience is expected to greet her at the service.

Christian Endeavor meeting at 7:00 p.m.

The young people's study-entertainment class will meet at the home of Miss Gladys Jacobs next Monday evening at 7:30. It is hoped the splendid attendance of the past meetings will be a feature of next week's meeting also.

Center Services

The Sunday school at Center took form last Sunday in a very practical manner. The informal program feature was enjoyed. Some detail needs of the organization were considered by the adults after the closing of the school occupied the remaining time of the services.

In future preaching will follow directly the Sunday school service.

Sunday school begins at 3:00 p.m. There was a splendid attendance, notwithstanding the inclemency of the weather.

MOVIE NOTES

Last week's show was a scream! Fred Stone delighted the fans with his Western style and witty sayings. Only a fair-sized crowd was out, leaving many vacant chairs, which we hope may be filled this Friday evening.

The pictures were much clearer, as the curtain was moved back and the stage fixed up a little, making it more attractive.

Coming, Friday night, Bryant Washburn in "A Very Good Young Man."

The coming picture is one of the best films on the market today. It was very popular in Seattle not many months ago.

Beginning with the show on Friday night an admission of 15¢ will be charged for children 14 and under. There will be no 10¢ admissions.

Marguerite Clarke will be seen at the movie theatre on the 16th of April, in her popular picture, "Let's Elope." This play has been a great attraction wherever it has been presented, and should be very popular here.

Also on the 16th a Mack Sennett comedy will be played. They are always clever and well liked.

THE PEOPLE'S FORUM

OVER SEAS OR HERE

At once, upon the close of the Civil War, our government set about earnestly caring for its soldier dead; indeed, this care began before the war had ended. Gettysburg and Arlington were dedicated while the war was still in progress. But when the war was over the dead that had been buried at the time on the battlefield or nearby the camp or the prison where they died, were gathered into 53 cemeteries, which became the property of the nation. These cemeteries were made beautiful, and through the fifty or sixty years that have passed since then, they have been faultlessly kept, and promise to be kept so as long as our nation shall last.

Three of them I have seen and considered with greatest interest, my own father being buried among the unknown, in one of them, Corinth, Miss. The known are marked with low marble slabs on which are cut the names and regiments. The unknown are marked with marble blocks, each with a number which corresponds with a number in a register that was made at the time of the reinterment.

The cemetery at Corinth contains 20 or 30 acres enclosed in high and wide brick walls coped with stone. The entrances have great iron gates that are opened with sunrise each morning and closed with sunset each evening as the seasons and years come and go. On a bronze tablet just inside the main entrance are these old lines:

"The muffled drum's sad roll
Has beat the soldier's last tatoo;
No more on life's parade shall sheet.
The brave and fallen few."

The number buried at Corinth is 512, more than two-thirds of which number are marked with marble blocks only; the unknown and to remain the unknown until the glory of that great day.

But fully two-thirds of all buried in those 53 cemeteries are wholly unknown, not even a letter of their name or regiment or state. Even at Gettysburg, where the battle was fought on northern soil and the battlefield remained in federal hands at the close of the battle, more than one-half are unknown.

Early in February, 1864, twenty regiments of Grant's cavalry, lying at Memphis, were ordered out under command of Gen. Wm. Sooy Smith, to connect with Sherman at Meridian in eastern Mississippi. A little more than halfway down, at West Point, Smith was met by a confederate force under General Forrest, and after serious fighting was driven back. In an engagement protecting the rear, 8 miles north of West Point, my father fell. The killed and wounded were left in the enemy's hands so that we never knew except that the place was the plantation of one James Randall, and that he was left dead, perhaps on the wagon road about thirty rods north of the Randall house. Twenty-three years afterwards I went to Randall place and at the place and about, I found a half dozen old negroes who were on the plantation at the time of the fight and had buried the dead and cared tenderly for the wounded. They showed me thirty rods north of the house by the side of the road where one man was lying, and a little south of the house another. They carried the two and buried them in the negro burying ground and in one grave. Further north and further south others were buried where they were found. The records of the cemetery at Corinth show that No. 331 and 332 were found buried in one grave in the negro burying ground, that 331 lay on the north side of 332 in the double grave. The one or the other was my father and most likely 331.

The superintendent of the cemetery would gladly have had the bodies taken up for possible definite identification, and there were certain things which made identification possible. Then if I cared to do so, I might remove this remains to the home cemetery. But I said, "No, it is enough."

Through 33 years I have been sure, and after 33 years I am now sure that this was a right decision. And I say this and I have written the above if perhaps it may help someone to decide the immediate question, if the bodies of loved ones are now to remain over seas or to be brought home. If to remain over seas, they will be gathered into cemeteries which will be the property of the nation. Made stately and beautiful, these cemeteries will remind the world that America is not unkindly of its dead. What better place in all the world for the last restingplace of the men who disinterestedly gave their lives for the wellbeing of mankind! Very few will need to be marked with numbers only. The names and identification and record will be there for ourselves and for generations yet to be.

BREEDING PAYS IN POULTRY

Records of Three Flocks of Leghorns Show Specifically Value of Purchased Males.

Prepared by the United States Department of Agriculture.

That the value of purchased males counts as much in poultry raising as in stock raising is shown by the records of three flocks of Leghorns, the data for which have been supplied the United States department of agriculture by the North Carolina experiment station. Flock 1, the egg production of which is included in these records, consisted of common hens; flock 2 was produced by breeding these hens to common males; flock 3 was produced by breeding flock 1 to a rooster from a high-producing hen. The following year the original flock laid 80 eggs a hen; flock 2 laid an average of 88 eggs a hen; and flock 3 laid an average of 100 eggs a hen. This increase of 24 per cent in one year tells very specifically the benefits of using a purebred male. But the percentages alone do not tell the whole story, for a big proportion of the increase came at a season—Mar. and June—when the production of flocks 1 and 2 was relatively low and the prices were good.

WOOD LEADS IN TENNESSEE

Chicago, March.—The Knox county delegation in the second district of Tennessee is solid for Wood for president. At the convention in Knoxville the following resolution was passed: "We endorse the candidacy of Leonard Wood for the Republican nomination and instruct our delegation to vote for delegates who are favorable to him."

Hal H. Clements, Republican state chairman of Tennessee, wired Frederick A. Jones, national vice chairman of the Wood campaign, that the state is now solid for Wood.

WOOD WON EVERY DELEGATE

Chicago, March.—The entire delegation from New Hampshire was instructed for Leonard Wood for the Republican presidential nomination according to the complete return. Early reports had it that Johnson had received one delegate, but when the final figures were all in it was found that the entire delegation was for Wood.
