VOLUME IV. VASHON, KING COUNTY, WASHINGTON, THURSDAY, MAY 13, 1920. NUMBER 30.

Vashon-Maury Islands Now the "Main Entrance"

BURTON

Miss Singnie Carlson has purchased a piano of Mrs. George Sageman.

The eighth grade of the grammar school will have exercises at the Baptist church on Sunday morning at 11:00 o'clock.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Burfield have moved into the Ralph Woods house, near the Methodist church, temporarily.

The Island Transfer Company has bought a new 2-ton "Gusix" truck. They have contracted for all the wood from Pankratz mill.

Mrs. M. Shane and daughter, Miss O. Shane, arrived from Winnipeg, Canada, to spend the summer with Mrs. Shane's niece, Mrs. A. H. Hiersch.

The grammar school will picnic at Pt. Defiance Park on Friday, going over on the steamer Vashon at 11:00 a. m. and returning on the 5:00 p. m. trip.

Invitations are out for the Burton high school alumni to meet at the high school on Saturday, May 15th, for a social time and banquet.

Mr. Geo. Taylor has bought the lot near Burton Trading Co.'s store, owned by Mr. Francis Sherman, and will move his store building on the lot some time this season.

Mrs. Harold Schaefer and two children left on Saturday for Vancouver, B. C., for a month's visit with her mother. Mr. Schaefer accompanied her as far as Seattle.

On "Mother's Day" Mrs. A. Hunt entertained at dinner, Mrs. Jaynes, Mrs. Jackson and Miss Jaynes, Mrs. Sarah Gammell, Mrs. Thos. McNair and Mrs. Margaret Wadsworth.

Mrs. F. A. Udell was brought home from the Seattle General hospital on Thursday of last week somewhat improved, and since her return, we are glad to note, is gaining steadily.

Mr. C. H. French has bought "Bendacro," the little home at Newport belonging to Miss Miriam Campbell. Mr. French is a teacher in the Franklin high school, Seattle. They will make this their summer home.

Mr. Chas. Cristman has bought of Mr. Hatch two and one-half acres of land adjoining the McDonald place, and a little later will be "at home" in some sort of an abiding place until lumber drops in price, when he will build.

The ten-dollar prize offered by Mr. Hanson, the paper man of Seattle to the high school on the Island selling him the most paper material, was won by Burton high school. The amount of magazines, catalogues and newspapers collected amounted to 6,096 pounds, which with the ten-dollar prize brought the school $70.96—a neat sum to be set aside for the athletic fund next year.

Mrs. C. Leathers was hostess for the Klos Tilicum Club on Thursday afternoon. At 1:30 a three-course luncheon was served, covers being placed for 18. The living rooms and the parlor were decorated with American Beauty roses and tulips. Corsage bouquets of roses and ferns were used as place cards. The afternoon was passed very pleasantly with cards.

The graduation exercises of the Burton high school will be held in the auditorium on Friday evening, May 14th, at 8:00 o'clock.

Expert sawfiling at Rendall's.

Rev. E. H. Gebert of Vashon will deliver the address. The graduates are Alice Bullard, Fannie Brink, Martha Cristman, Clarence Carlson, Gladys Lamoreux, Elizabeth Macearthy, Ebba Petterson, Bernice Roach, Ruth Tjosdal, Marie Tjosdal, Georg Vye, and Roscoe Wilber. There will be an exhibit of school work in the gymnasium from 7 to 8 o'clock.

We very much regret to announce that the Leathers family will soon move to Vancouver, Wn., where their home is. Mr. Leathers has been offered a position in the school there with the salary much increased, and other conditions make the move advisable. During the year that Mr. Leathers has been principal of our grammar school not one word of complaint has been heard, and it was hoped he might be induced to continue his work here. In the social life of the community Mr. and Mrs. Leathers have both added much, and have been foremost in all the good things that make for a better town. They have been residents of the Island several times, and the next time they cross the water this way we hope to "land" them for good.

Baptist Church
A day of helpfulness has been planned for next Sunday at 11:00 a. m. The eighth grade from the grammar school will be guests, and the sermon theme will be, "The Temple of Life." At 8:00 p. m. the theme will be, "Influence," and a special solo will be sung by Mrs. Chas. Evans of Tacoma. Mrs. Evans is a splendid vocalist and it will be a great treat to hear her. All are cordially invited.
T. S. Fretz, Minister.

With the formal opening of ferry service at the south end of the Island this Saturday, May 15th, Vashon-Maury will automatically become the "main entrance" for commercial and residential purposes between Tacoma and Seattle. It is the one big move this year to put the "Islands on the map," and thus put them on the map for "keeps."

The ferry will arrive from Tacoma at Vashon landing at 10:30 o'clock and will take over a load of Island autos. It will return immediately for a second load, and after landing on the Tacoma side there will be a "noise" parade, winding up at the Tacoma Commercial Club rooms where a big free feed will be served to everybody, followed by a program consisting principally of speech making and general good-fellowship. Tacoma and Tacoma people throw the city open to Island folks Saturday and with outstretched arms stand waiting to give all Vashon-Maury people a real Tacoma welcome!

Vashon-Maury Islands: The choicest territory between Seattle and Tacoma.

THE SOUTH END FERRY

The formal opening of the South End Ferry next Saturday will mark an epoch in the history of the Islands. It will unite a link which connects two great cities—Seattle to the north, and Tacoma to the south. To our mind it will spell out wonderful possibilities for the Islands. Unless we are listed later as a false prophet, the man who owns a five or ten acre tract of land anywhere on the Islands can soon cry out with Robinson Crusoe, "I am monarch of all I survey", for he will be sort of an unerowned king.

He can have his cow, his chickens, his strawberrybed, his cherry trees, his flowers of every description, a view of Puget Sound, a sea breeze laden with ozone from the mighty Pacific; Tacoma at one door and Seattle at the other, with his feet planted on rich soil and his brow kissed by the sweetest sunlight that ever fell out of the dome of blue.

Yes, here is all that the heart of man can hunger for—delectable food from earth, sky and sea for the body; culture for the mind, and ten thousand charms for the soul! A walk anywhere on the Island these fine mornings would fatten any soul. The manifold colors of the alders, fir, madrona, brier and bush! The song of the lark, the buzzing of the bees, the drone of revived nature, starting on her labor of a new year.

And men have fallen in line too. The ferry is completed, the paving of the highway is on, the flame and smoke of dead and decaying timber is seen, the plowing of the soil, the song of the carpenter's axe, all are music, and advancement, and development, and progress, and gladness for a home in such a goodly place.

OUR CORRESPONDENTS

When we first received a copy of the News-Record in a little town nearly a "thousand miles away", the one outstanding feature which really attracted our attention was the many live correspondents, with their interesting neighborhood news letters. We do not know of any country paper we have ever seen which publishes more neighborhood news each week than this one. And that's what makes a local paper—the neighborhood news. And our correspondents are the ones who supply the news—they are the real "power behind the throne".

A generation ago people smiled at Queen Victoria as being ruler of Britannia, knowing Wm. E. Gladstone was the real voice which spoke for the English people. The one was manager in name, the other was manager in fact.

The editor is willing to take the "Queen Victoria" part, but we call upon the different correspondents to continue the Gladstone role.

Don't drop out! Don't quit! We need your help, and cannot live without you. Send in your news items and we'll print them, and our two thousand readers will read them, and the paper will continue to live up to its name—a "News" paper, giving each week a "Record" of Vashon-Maury Island doings.

We are entire strangers here, are busy getting our house put in order, but we expect to spend a share of our time rambling over the Island, and if we don't meet you, drop in to the office and meet us. We are the same height as Abraham Lincoln, nearly as homely, but are pretty good natured as a rule, so send in the news, and drop in soon and say "howdy."

South End Ferry Opening May 15.

This is going to be a bad year for the man or party which backs booze in politics.

Both capital and labor can thank God that the United States is under prohibition.

You never hear of a man accusing his wife of driving him to near beer.

An easy way to make friends is never to have an opinion of your own; but it's a poor way to keep them.

There's a lot of gladness in this world, but every now and then you bump into the sorehead, who seems to think his mission on earth is to spoil it all.

Self-respect has more reliance than self-assertion.

A COMMUNITY CHURCH

The last editorial we wrote for our former Idaho paper was commending the "Interchurch World Movement", and it seems fitting that our first plunge into the News-Record editorial pool, should be along the same line. We believe firmly in the churches and also in the work the churches are doing. Next to the American home, we believe the church stands first in importance of all organized institutions. Its history is the story of unselfish service, moral uplift, the sowing of good seed for character building, and the reign of righteousness among men.

This paper announced a few days ago the resignation of the Presbyterian pastor of this place, and last Sunday we heard read the resignation of the local pastor of the Methodist Church. Thus the pulpit of the two Vashon churches are now pastorless. Both retiring pastors are good men, but in these days of skyrocketing prices for all living materials, one finds it well nigh impossible to meet necessary expenses on a salary which hovers around a hundred dollars per month. The community is trying to do its best toward supporting these two churches, the pastors did their best to faithfully serve their respective flocks, but the system is what appears to us to be the weak part of the problem.

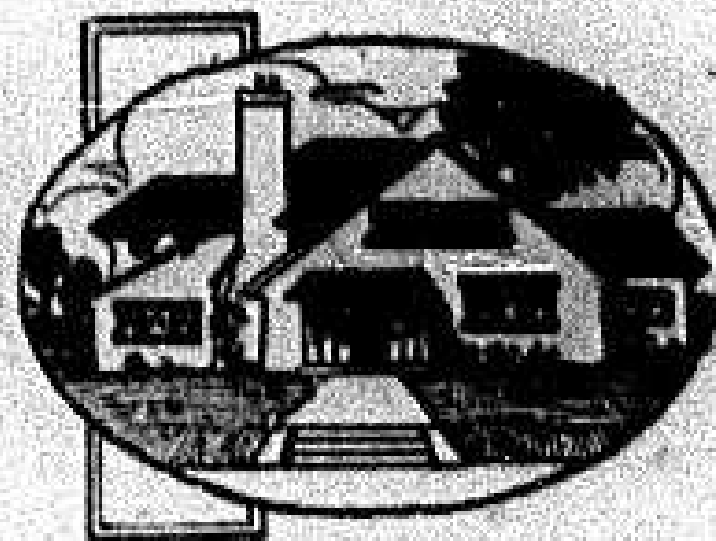

Does Vashon really need two evangelical churches? We have no doubt but some will loudly answer "yes", but we also believe most of the community residents will hardly agree that two churches are vitally needed to minister to the spiritual and moral needs of the people of this place.

There are many places scattered over this country which have no church services within a radius of many, many miles. Children are growing up without knowing what a Sunday School means, and the sick have no pastor to comfort them, and relatives can find no preacher to bury their dead. But Vashon-Maury Island is NOT one of these places. Here there are divers and sundry churches of divers and sundry denominations. There is a supply and demand for pastors, but we feel the question of distribution is now a paramount issue.

Why not have one church and one pastor for this community and thereby make room for one pastor to labor in some other field that is now destitute?

True, there are some minor differences between Methodists and Presbyterians. But this could also be followed up with another subdivision of Free Methodists, Wesleyan Methodists and Methodist Episcopal ad infinitum! There are Presbyterians and Cumberland Presbyterians and United Presbyterians, and all expect to go to heaven irrespective of the name.

The editor of this paper is a Baptist, his parents were Free Will Baptists, but we fancy in the other land there will be no separate rooms for any of the members of these particular earth creeds. We hope the day will soon dawn when churches will altogether cease quarrelling over names, and church polity, and creed, and unite on the Golden Rule of the Galilean Carpenter. There are some obstacles in the way of one union church for Vashon. The biggest difficulty as we see it, is the two beautiful church buildings, with their respective parsonages. We believe the obstacles could be overcome

ELLISPORT

W. C. Cliff, who has just returned from a month's absence on a visit to New Richmond, Wis., his old home of twenty years ago, has not yet ceased to express his wonderment about the vast difference in the climate of Wisconsin and Vashon Island. He left Wisconsin on the 29th of April, when it was yet too cold and wet to make gardens, and when there was not a blade of green grass to be seen. Snow and sleet were in evidence all along the Canadian Pacific enroute home until he reached the Pacific slope.

Vashon Island is away ahead of any place he saw anywhere, and he even views the weeds in his potato patch with high glee, and declared that he would not exchange his little place on Vashon for any place he had seen in his travels. During his visit in New Richmond, a brother and his wife and a sister, whom he had not seen in thirty-three years, came from Boston, Mass., to meet him, and there was a joyful family reunion which will be a blessed memory as long as they all live.

Although W. C. is the eldest of the nine children in the family, and the brother from Boston is the youngest, W. C. was voted the most youthful of the bunch, and of course he attributes it all to our Vashon climate.

He declares that "Arrow" collars cost twice as much in St. Paul as they do in Seattle, and one is expected to wear twice as many as they do here, and everything else in proportion; but that there are an awful lot of nice people in New Richmond, who gave him a most cordial welcome, and his trip has done him a world of good. But now he will be perfectly satisfied to spend the next twenty years right here on Vashon Island.

In the issue of April 29 the News and Republican Voice of New Richmond contained the following concerning Mr. Cliff's visit to the "old home place."

"W. C. Cliff of Ellisport, Wash.—Cook Cliff of the old days in New Richmond—is here making a two-weeks' visit with his brother, M. Y. Cliff. Apparently in the best of health, he says he is feeling fine running around meeting the old friends, all of whom are exceedingly glad to see him, and he is really having the time of his life. He reports the St. Croix county colony in the Seattle-Vashon Island country doing fine.

"Of course Mr. Cliff is a great booster for the climate out on the Pacific. No matter what the conversation opens up with, politics, the U. C. L., or religion, Cook will sooner or later swing it around to the Pacific coast climate—especially the Vashon Island variety—and he straightway proceeds to sell that important article. He said they never have any extremes of temperature; it is neither very hot nor very cold, just right, you understand; there is not a sled nor a sleigh on Vashon Island, nor a saloon.

"Cook said that his garden was all planted when he left home last week, and a lot of the things were up above the ground."

In different parts of the country agricultural colleges are carrying on a special campaign to interest farmers in silo construction. As the price of hay climbs higher and higher, the value of the silo for storing food for stock is becoming more apparent.

It is a good and safe rule to sojourn in every place as if you meant to spend your life there, never omitting an opportunity of doing a kindness, or speaking a true word, or making a friend.—Ruskin.

Bank deposits at Aberdeen show a gain of 18 per cent for the first four months of the year.

Youngsters in Bosnia Are Used to Disseminate Information, Since Printed Sheet is Unknown.

Bosnian children of the Mohammedan faith have perhaps the most remarkable memories and aptitude for languages of any children in Europe. Despite the fact that the percentage of illiteracy among the Bosnian Mohammedans is very high, the memories of the children have become remarkably developed by the memorizing of thousands of prayers. Some of the children are also used by the villages as "walking newspapers." The brightest boys go to a coffee house where a Mohammedan, speaking in a high clear voice, translates the latest news from the Serbian newspapers.

The boys listen attentively and then go out on their "paper routes." When they enter a village on their route the town crier beats a drum and all the men of the district gather about the boy. (The women usually are working in the fields while their lords drink coffee and fermented plum juice at the town cafe). The little "walking newspaper" then performs his feat of memory. Word for word he repeats what he heard translated to him. His pay consists of food, lodging and a few kronen.

GRAZING IN NATIONAL FORESTS.

The demand for range on the national forests was greater the last year than ever before in the history of the forest service, which branch of the United States department of agriculture has control of these tracts. Especially in the drought-stricken regions, stockmen using the unreserved public domain or private pastures eagerly sought forest permits in order to save their stock. The value of the system of range regulation in use has been so thoroughly demonstrated that representative stockmen from all the Western states have declared emphatically in favor of placing the remaining unreserved public lands under federal control and having them managed under a plan similar to that in effect on the national forests.

OIL FOR PARIS.

The French government has approved the building of a double pipe line for oil between Havre and Paris, 150 miles. One of the lines of ten-inch diameter will be used for heavy fuel oils, and the other, a smaller pipe line of four inches, for petroleum and motor spirit. It is estimated that 4,500 tons of heavy and 1,000 tons of light oil and spirit can be pumped through these lines daily, thus helping to meet the problem of the coal supply of Paris. It is hoped to complete the lines in time for next winter.

RAILS TO SPLIT HEMISPHERE.

A plan is under way to realize the project of a railway from Hudson bay to Patagonia. Most of the route could be traversed by lines already built, it is stated. The journey, amounting to about ten thousand miles, would occupy from 16 to 18 days.

The Siberian railway is 5,481 miles in length, from Petrograd to Vladivostok. The Cape-to-Cairo railway, when it is completed, will probably be considerably longer than the Siberian, but will fall short of the immense distance from the Arctic circle to the southern tip of South America.—Outlook.

SET HIGH VALUE ON HEADS

Members of Borneo Tribe Consider Collection of Growsome Relics as Duty to Community.

The Kayams are a tribe of Borneo head-hunters who have a deep-rooted and inextinguishable yearning for a head not their own, which is supposed to be a material blessing, bringing easily discerned and undoubted good not only to the possessor, but to the entire community. The possession of a head is not considered by them like the scalp of the American Indian, a mere trophy.

Kayam chiefs usually have a fine collection of heads hanging from a beam outside the doors of their huts. The heads have wooden ears and are ornamented with straw to represent hair. The conspicuous position is given the heads because stealing is very rare among the natives, and the penalty for touching a head belonging to some one else means sudden death.

The Kayams are a strange and fearsome people, their brows shaved, eyes lashless, teeth filed to a point, stained black and ornamented with brass plugs. In reality, however, they are an honest, gentle and hospitable people.

HAVE TRUE MOUNTAIN SPIRIT

Kabyles of Northern Africa Proud and Arrogant, and Keen Lovers of Independence.

The snow-capped mountains of northern Africa shelter a race of mountaineers as distinctive in type as the mountain dwellers in our own land. The Kabyles, as they are called, live in almost inaccessible corners of the mountains, and by their manners and customs further insure seclusion. They have a proverb widely quoted among themselves that "he has not seen Algeria who has not seen Kabylia." Yet the foreigner is not made welcome in their mountains, nor are they eager to display the boasted wonders of their country.

The Kabyles are true mountaineers. Feuds and vendettas are common. Pride and arrogance are ingrained in them. They are an independent race well aware of their strength that so effectively held off for a long time the French conquerors—Algeria. France finally won the mountains, but the Kabyles have retained their independent spirit. They have never mixed with the Arabs of the plains, though they wear the Arab dress and profess the Mohammedan faith.

Many people think Mont Blanc is in Switzerland, but geographically it is not. It is now proposed to make a tunnel under the great white mountain, one side of which is in France and the other in Italy, these two nations contributing to meet the

RIVER GULLS GREAT EATERS

New York Ferry Guard Declares the Birds Devour More Than Their Weight in a Day.

Those who complain about the cold, increasing coal bills and other troubles resulting from spring weather long deferred will do well to consider the ways of sea gulls wintering along the Hudson and East rivers.

Guards on the Hudson ferries declare that one reason the gulls can weather it with comfort on an ice cake in zero weather is their ability to store away food.

"I don't know how they put in the nights, but daytime is dinnertime for the gulls along this route," said an observing guard on an Erie ferry, according to the New York Evening Sun. "I know several gulls that are wintering here by their markings and they average a mouthful of some food or other every two minutes. There are about eleven hours of daylight now and you can figure it for yourself that means about 330 mouthfuls a day. Some of these bites are so big the bird has to stand on an ice cake and jerk its neck to swallow. Consider that the average bite is half an ounce, then the birds must eat ten pounds of food, or more than their own weight, every day."

ROOSEVELT BOY CAPTURES WOOD

Leonard Wood plunged into politics eleven years of age, four years before Roosevelt. He lived in Uncle Sam's Garden, E. L., and worked with all his might to bring about the nomination of his idol. He wrote a pamphlet, among other stunts, and called it "The Boys of America to the Republican National Convention." One copy he mailed to Leonard Wood, commanding the Eastern department of the army on Governor's Island, New York harbor.

Among other things, Lawrence said that "a great army of American boys whose fathers are Democrats, will ask their fathers to vote for 'Our Teddy,' and the fathers will do it too, and Roosevelt will be elected." He talked on the fact that while "Preparedness" is Colonel Roosevelt's issue, his motive is "Peace on earth, good will toward men."

Leonard Wood was struck by the mature ideas of the boy and replied to his letter in these words:

"Governor's Island, N. Y., June, 6, 1916.

"My dear Lawrence: Thank you for your pamphlet. With Armageddon Abroad. Let Us Have Peace Around Our Christmas Tree." This is the desire of all our people. No one who knows anything about it wants war unless it is to save our people and the institutions and ideals which we believe are worth more than life itself.

"Preparedness is not preparedness for war; it is simply a peace insurance which we think is worth while taking out because it will enable us to protect all those things which are dearest to us Americans. It will enable us to avoid war because the world will see we are not only just and well-meaning; but we are prepared to resist the forces of evil with the strength of the right.

"I appreciate more than I can tell you the kind thought which prompted you to send this. All our people are interested in peace, but in the peace of righteousness, and consequently they should be interested in rational and proper preparedness.

Sincerely yours,

"LEONARD WOOD."

Lawrence was proud of the letter and kept it to show his little friends. He gave it to the Evening Mail, with the message:

"The honor Gen. Wood has done me in sending this letter is an honor to all boys, in whose names I wrote my pamphlet, and so I am bringing it to the Evening Mail so that all may read this message of peace from the American army."

FIRST CHOICE IN 19 STATES

Wood Leads Lowden by 143 Delegates in Poll Taken by New York Newspaper.

New York, April.—Leonard Wood holds a lead of 143 delegates over Governor Lowden in the presidential preference poll being conducted by the Sun and New York Herald, taken among the chairmen of the county committees. The candidate who gets the greater number of first choice votes receives credit for the number of delegates from the entire state.

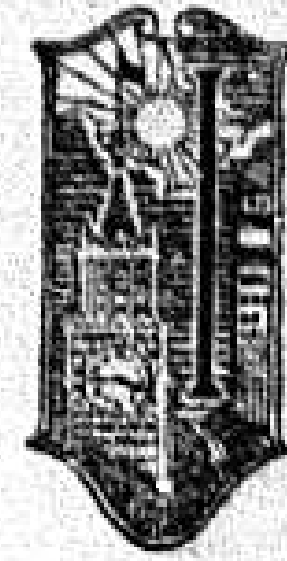

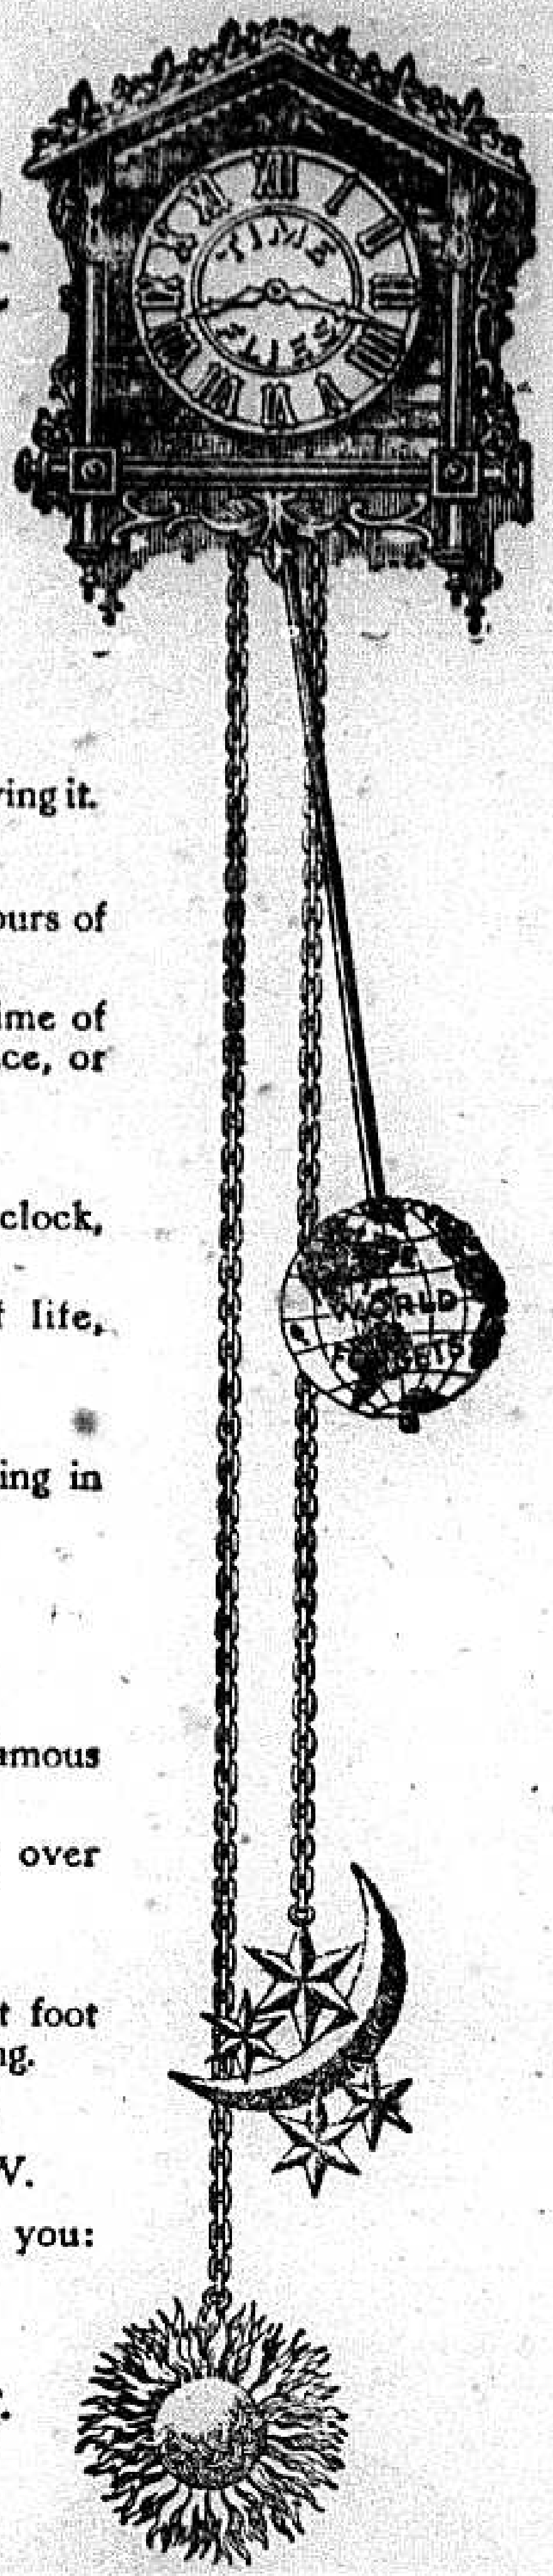

Wood is first choice in 19 states and second choice in 13. Lowden is first choice in 9 and second choice in 10. Johnson is first choice in 2 states (not including Michigan).

Total number of delegates indicated by county chairmen's preferences: Wood, 352; Lowden, 209; Spruiell, 76; Johnson, 36; Coolidge, 35; Watson, 20; Borah, 8.

The poll, so far, includes 54 states.

In northeastern Pennsylvania are nearly a hundred species of native forest trees, says the American Forestry Magazine of Washington. Probably very few equal areas have a greater wealth of species.

The Best Advertisement In the World

IT IS THE TICK OF THE CLOCK.

It says only one, short word, but it says that word over and over.

Here the tick is loud, there low.

But always millions on millions of clocks are saying it.

It never stops.

It speaks to a baby's ears, and to the dying hours of an old man.

It speaks in time of joy; in time of grief; in time of idleness, or struggle and stress; in time of peace, or time of WAR.

It never stops.

Always it is telling the old, old story of the clock, "Time Flies."

Always it is repeating the stern lesson of life, "The World Forgets."

It never stops.

And it has made the clock the best known thing in all the world.

Such is the power of reiteration.

Such is the power of persistence.

Such is the power of constancy.

Call the advertising roll of honor, the world-famous advertising, alive to answer.

None ever stopped. All have told their story over and over, and still are telling it.

Advertising stopped is advertising dead.

Advertising brought back from the grave must foot again the long, old road from the very beginning.

NOW is the time to advertise—the only time.

Advertise to-morrow when to-morrow is NOW.

Listen to THE TICK of the clock, as it tells you: "Time flies. The world forgets."

NOW is the time to advertise.

PROPOSED CHANGE IN MARKETING SYSTEM

Portland, O.—Initial steps toward closer co-operation between the farmer, labor and business interests of the state were taken at a meeting at the chamber of commerce under auspices of the State Taxpayers' league. At the conclusion of an all-day session a unanimous vote was recorded in favor of submitting a market commission bill to the voters of Oregon at the coming election.

Outlines of a measure were agreed upon which follow to a great extent the provision of a similar enactment in force in California.

Some of the provisions of the bill as adopted give the market commission power to investigate and tabulate market facilities for the producers of the state, authority to encourage and aid in the establishing of co-operative associations between the producers. In the main, the market commission furnishes leadership for the farmers and producers in finding a market for their products.

CHINESE LOANS PLANNED

Consortium Arranged After Year's Negotiation By Powers.

Washington.—Japan has withdrawn all objections to Chinese consortium and has prepared a communication accepting the terms as agreed upon by the United States, Great Britain and France, the state department was informed by the American embassy at Tokio.

The consortium will become effective as soon as the signatures of officials have been affixed.

The acceptance of the consortium by Japan ends a two-years' effort by the state department to provide for the financing of China by representative groups of bankers in each of the four great countries. Japan has contended that Manchuria and Mongolia should be excluded from the operation of the consortium, claiming that it had predominant rights in that territory because of proximity. The United States, however, refused to agree to this exclusion.

COVE COMMENTS

So once more our local paper has changed hands. It has happened several times since your Cove Commenter scribbled for the paper. Some of the editors have been progressive and some otherwise. And we must certainly hand it to the retiring editor, Mr. Jones, as having been a fairminded and liberal guide of the paper's destiny. Needless to say we are pleased to know that Mr. Jones will still be with us to help work for the upbuilding of the Islands. We are also glad to see that the new editor and owner, Mr. Smock, will continue the liberal policies of The Record, because a sectarian-partisan paper would be foredoomed to failure. As has been remarked, a newspaper is either a power for good or evil, which is true to a greater extent than is generally recognized. It has been said time and again in my hearing that the big daily papers are, to put it mildly, unreliable in handling news that affect the economic interests of those who own such papers, with the result that numerous persons are refusing to subscribe to these papers lacking confidence in anything they may read therein. However, this does not affect The Record, which naturally is devoted to its own success by upbuilding the Island community. So, Mr. incoming Editor, here's wishing you success and support insofar as my feeble efforts can help.

That little item in last week's paper re Russian Reds insisting on everybody working, is apropos (to the point) when it says that Bolshevism will soon begin to wane in this country. The Russians are simply putting into practice the Scriptural injunction, "If a man will not work, neither shall he eat." And it is very noticeable that most of those who are yelling "Bolshevism" at all liberal moves are just the ones who are not going to do any real work if they can get George to do it for them. Here's some interesting items for you automobile men, as given by a Mr. Collins, who was for sixteen years General manager of the London Exploration Company in Mexico, where gasoline retails for nine cents per gallon as against 24 cents here. There's more than sugar profiteers bleeding the folks. Mexico has 215 oil wells, and the general average is 65,000 barrels a day. The United States has something like 225,000 wells with a daily average of one to four barrels. No wonder some of the interests want to grab at least that part of Mexico containing the oil. Mr. Collins speaks a good word for the Mexican government as being satisfactory to deal with provided the Mexican laws are observed (naturally). But to read some of the reliable (?) press of this country one would naturally conclude that Carranza, besides having long whiskers, had horns and hoofs and a barbed tail, and that Mexico was the next door to Sheol, where the popular sport was murdering American citizens. I am inclined to believe Mr. Collins, who, having spent 16 years in the country, should know what he is talking about. He is now connected with the American Land and Petroleum Company of Mexico City, and is touring the United States, addressing a group of business men who are interested in the southern republic. He further sounds a note of warning that any invasion of Mexico on our part would mean that the entire Latin section of the Americas would rise in arms to repel it.

Another thing in favor of wearing overalls is they hold their crease so long.

There may not be an overproduction of the things we need this year, but we won't be able to say as much about political arguments between now and November.

STRONG LIGHT REVEALS DUST

Rays Simply Make Visible the Millions of Motes That Are Always Floating in Air.

Even yet there are some housewives who carefully exclude from their homes the health-giving sunlight on the ground that "it raises the dust!" For proof they will admit a beam of light and then point triumphantly to the millions of dust motes which become visible.

It is impossible with the naked eye to see dust particles by ordinary or diffused light, but when the particles are highly illuminated, as by a beam of sunlight coming into a room or the rays of an electric searchlight, they are visible, but they were there just the same before they were disclosed. Doubters who would cling to the sunlight-and-dust theory should try throwing a powerful electric ray into a room at midnight. There will be disclosed just as many dust particles in the air as the sun would disclose at midday.

If it were not for the atmospheric dust, we would not see the characteristic beams from searchlights or the sunbeams as they are so frequently depicted by artists.

As to the housekeeper who shuts out the sunlight, she is really acting on the principle that what you don't know or see doesn't hurt you.—New York Post.

POWER OF THE FAIR SEX

"There's nothing like a fair plaintiff to brighten up a courtroom."

"You are right about that," said the veteran lawyer. "I've known a pretty woman on the witness stand to make the judge look ten years younger, and put so much zeal into lawsuits they couldn't leave off commanding 'Order in court!'"—Birmingham Age-Herald.

THE ARTIST AND THE UNION.

Unlike their brethren in Paris, American artists have rejected a proposal to unionize. In voting with his fellow members of the Society of Independent Artists, Incorporated, one declared: "We have more societies than we know what to do with. It simply means additional trouble and takes time that artists would prefer to give to their work." In a way, artists are in a class by themselves. Their working day is not checked up by the hands of the clock; their product is not determined by what passes muster. Artists toil many an hour beyond the regulation working period, and put recompense second to the question of giving their best. Higher wages and shorter hours to them seem to have little interest.

SOME WAG.

Redd—Black took his dog over to France with him when he left with his regiment, didn't he?

Greene—Oh, yes. "And they have returned, I hear?"

"Yes." "Both got their old jobs back?" "Well, the dog has. I saw him chasing his tail today."—Yankee Statesman.

MATHEMATICS.

The mathematical curriculum in college and secondary schools is to be reformed, it being held that the work in mathematics in too many of the secondary schools has been dominated by college entrance requirements. To accomplish the proposed changes the general education board has appropriated $16,000.

REASSURING.

"The man you recommended to me as a son-in-law hasn't got a penny to his name!" "Don't worry! He'll never run you into debt! No one would trust him with a penny!"

GREAT IN HIS PENMANSHIP

Leonard Wood Puts Himself in Class With Horace Greeley and Napoleon.

Leonard Wood's penmanship is his weakest point, but in that he has a prototypes, Horace Greeley, Napoleon and many other illustrious leaders. Clive Sewcome Hartt, who was his stenographer at Governor's Island writes:

"During the winter of 1916-1917 General Wood was traveling here and there speaking in behalf of preparedness. It was part of Captain Johnson's duties—Captain Johnson being an aide to the general—to keep in touch with his itinerary. One day the captain came into the office, and picking up the general's memorandum pad scowled in perplexity at the words scrawled across the page in the general's inimitable handwriting. The general watched him quietly for a few moments, then said:

"What's wrong? Fire away." "That was his usual signal that he was ready to listen to what one had to say."

"Er—excuse me, general," said Captain Johnson, hesitatingly, "but, but—I don't quite understand the memorandum. This reads—'Here for lunch' while my slate says you are not in town tomorrow—and I don't quite understand—that is, I've made no plans for lunch for tomorrow."

"Let me see it," said the general. "He glanced quickly at the notation on the pad, and then said disgustedly: "That doesn't say anything about 'Here for lunch.' It reads 'Leave for Ithaca.'"

WOOD LEADS IN LITERARY DIGEST

Leonard Wood is More Than 9,000 Votes Ahead of Nearest Competitor.

In its attempt to learn the composite choice of the nation for nomination for president, the Literary Digest or the week of April 24 publishes the second installment of its presidential poll of 11,000,000 voters. The returns include 149,004 votes. Leonard Wood continues to hold a big lead.

Wood has 32,351; Hoover, 22,908; Johnson, 22,609; Harding, 10,432; Hughes, 5,922; Lowden, 6,449; Taft, 3,400. Among the Democrats, Edwards gets 7,568; McAdoo, 6,740; Wilson, 6,491; Cox, 5,649; Bryan, 3,885.

Hoover receives a Democratic vote of 9,974 which is larger than the Democratic vote cast for any avowed Democrat. McAdoo has the first place in the declared Democratic vote with 5,613 and Wilson is second with 5,342. The vote continues to come mainly from Ohio, New York, New Jersey, California, Texas and Washington.

New York Leans Ever Woodward, New York, April 24.—Although the people of Ohio will actually vote for the selection of only 48 delegates to the Chicago convention at the polls on April 27, the result of their balloting will materially influence 88 delegates from New York state at nomination time.

A poll of the Empire state's 88 delegates, elected on April 6, shows that they are for the strongest candidate, with a leaning toward General Wood because he is in the lead. The remarkable showing General Wood made in Illinois against Governor Lowden has boosted his stock with the 88 New Yorkers and they are now watching Ohio. If General Wood makes as good a showing against Senator Harding in Ohio as he did against Governor Lowden, this fact will practically insure the vote of the New York delegation for him.

John J. Lyons, a leading New York delegate elected to go to Chicago, said: "Two things are certain about the New York delegation: First, it is not for Senator Johnson, because all the Johnson pledged candidates for delegates were beaten by three to one or worse in the recent primary election; second, it is going to vote for the man who is nominated. At present it looks like Wood is going to be nominated, for he has split the delegation in one favorite son's state and it looks like he has a chance to split another favorite son's native state's delegation. If he does the New York delegation will regard him as the man most likely to get the nomination and will support him after a complimentary first ballot for Dr. Nicholas Murray Butler. A recent poll showed Wood was the first choice of 75 per cent of the people of New York state, and if to this sentiment is added the Illinois outcome and a similar result in Ohio, it can readily be understood why Wood would stand ace high with the New York delegation."

Garland for Wood. Hamlin Garland, the writer, has written a letter of endorsement of Maj. Gen. Leonard Wood, in which he says:

"General Wood knows the old world and the new. He has a wide acquaintance among the men of power and patriotism and can be trusted to form a cabinet of the highest ability. He has shown that he can hold the even hand over the labor problem. He is neither the business man nor the partisan of labor; he is a great and patriotic citizen, a civilian of vast experience, a soldier of noble spirit and notable self-restraint. Admirable as the other candidates are General Wood by his training, by his experience as well as by his temperamental qualities has first claim on the voters who realize that this is a time of swift change and that the nation needs an executive of proven ability and impartial good will."

You've heard a lot about hundred dollar suits of clothes—well, some dealers may get these prices but we haven't even thought about hundred dollar suits except when our attention has been called to them:

More than half our stock is priced from $35.00 to $50.00 and in these prices we've got clothing that will give you perfect satisfaction for you get no better tailoring in goods above these prices. For the past four or five buying seasons we have known that not over 65 or 70 per cent of the clothing bought would be delivered:

Conditions have improved, however, and we will get all the clothing due us from our buying of last Fall and this places us in a very easy position this Spring; we've got the goods in stock and on the way for practically all of this year's business and we assure you clothing will be no higher.

Washington.—With Mexico City, Vera Cruz and Tampico in the hands of the revolutionists, American destroyers were sent to Mexican waters to await eventualities and to afford protection to the American lives in the Mexican gulf ports. This gives the revolutionists control of practically all of the important cities.

Official confirmation of the fall of the Mexican capital was received by the state department from the American embassy which reported there was no disorder in the capital.

The American embassy report made no mention of President Carranza, and reports from Vera Cruz said a search there had failed to find him. A report that he had been arrested in Esperanza, state of Vera Cruz, was without confirmation here.

Estimates of the state department place the number of Americans in Mexico at between 6000 and 7000, including radicals and draft evaders who crossed the border to escape the law.

TREATY THROWN INTO CAMPAIGN

Washington.—The treaty of Versailles as it came from Paris has been thrown squarely into the coming presidential campaign.

President Wilson formally has called upon the democratic party to "endorse and support" the treaty and "condemn the Lodge reservations."

Senator Lodge, of Massachusetts, the republican leader in the fight to amend the document, has accepted the president's challenge, and political observers have regarded the issue as clearly drawn.

Mr. Wilson's views were stated in a telegram to G. E. Hamaker, of Portland, chairman of the Multnomah county democratic central committee.

With W. J. Bryan insisting that the democrats accept the reservations adopted by a majority of the senate, some observers here expect a sharp fight on the treaty issue at San Francisco, with Senator Hitchcock, of Nebraska, probably leading the administration forces.

INJURED BY EXPLOSION

Jack Wood met with an unfortunate accident recently while blasting. He lighted a stick of powder, but it did not go off, so he cut the fuse and lighted it a second time, when it exploded before he could get away, breaking his right arm in one place and crushing the bone from the wrist to the elbow. He was badly burned on the face and chest, also. Dr. Ireland rendered first aid and sent him to a Seattle hospital, where he was resting at last report as well as could be expected. We are informed that the surgeon at the hospital mended the injured man's arm by inserting the bone from a calf.

Mr. and Mrs. Wood have just moved to the Island and Mr. Wood was clearing his land for a house.

What does he think of the farmer? Was he ever a farmer himself? Does he care more for free seeds for city folks than for county agents for farm folks? Is he for the farmers, now that he's elected, or has he forgotten them?

has been hunting up the farmers in Congress—and, let me tell you, it's like hunting for a needle in a haystack. At any rate, it is finding out who are the farmers' friends, and that's something to know.

In the issue of THE COUNTRY GENTLEMAN that will be out next week there's a big article called "How Congressmen Vote." I wish you'd read it—it sure is an eye-opener. There's an election coming on, and the farmers should know who are their friends in Wash-

SO. HEIGHTS

Mr. Holmes spent the week end on his place here attending to his garden.

A party from Tacoma visited the Nicking place last Sunday with a view to purchasing.

Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Swanson of Burton and Mr. and Mrs. Victor Saxe of Seattle were visitors at the Krogh home on Friday.

Mr. Lee Bruckart and his mother returned some time since from Oakland, Cal. Mr. Bruckart is making good recovery from his recent serious illness.

Miss Esther Johnson, accompanied by Mr. Bishop, visited Mr. Johnson's orchard here on Monday to report on work being done by Mr. Forrest.

Mrs. Chas. Berry spent several days with the home folks last week. Charles is studying dentistry in Portland, and has just about completed his first year.

Further word comes from Portland that Miss Natalie Hall is doing well there as stenographer. Her brother Mahlon, who is in the navy, has recently been married, she says, to a lady he met in Honolulu.

Little Matthew Bridges of Clam Cove was taken to the Tacoma General hospital last week, and has had an operation, we understand, for some trouble with his stomach. His parents have the sympathy of all the neighbors.

Apropos of the high price of gingham, some of our ladies are resorting to burlap skirts and aprons for washing, scrubbing, garden and poultry work. Many grain sacks show no lettering on the inside. They do not soil quickly, are easily washed and need no ironing.

If an English sparrow was to steal raspberries and stain his head and back with the juice, he would resemble the California purple Finch. This little rascal, with his cheery, oriole-like song, is the author of much mischief in the cherry orchards, nipping the blossoms and dropping them until sometimes the ground is covered. Well, this is bad, but we quote from a government bulletin the following regarding this bird: "The seeds of weeds constitute the bulk of the diet of the linnnet, and in August, the month of least consumption, amount to about 64 per cent of the food. The average for the year is 84 per cent."

While the price of sugar is soaring, people are learning to "take the bitter with the sweet."

It has been whispered around the country that the fellow who could "take it or leave it alone" now spends his time in making home-made brew.

FERTILE SPOTS IN ARABIA

Country Largely Desert, but in the Valleys Figs, Spices and Dates Are Produced.

In physical character, flora and fauna, Arabia is more like Africa than Asia, says a bulletin of the National Geographic society. Josephus called Arabia "a country that joins on Judea," and Roman geographers draw a map of the land that included Mesopotamia and the Syrian desert back of Palestine.

Yemen, the most southerly and most populous of the Arabian provinces, has many arable valleys producing coffee, figs, spices, hides and dates.

For convenience, the ancients divided Arabia into three parts, the Stony, the Desert and the Happy. The high interior plateau is occupied by four great deserts, the Syrian, the Nefud, the Akhaf, and the Dehna. Koweit, the busy port of the Hasa province, from which many cargoes of dates, sponges and a wealth of pearls are shipped, was selected by the Germans as the salt-water terminus of their Bagdad railway. The kaiser's plans, however, were blocked by a clever coup of the British who made a treaty with the sheik of Koweit.

SKELETONS ARE IN DEMAND

Shortage of Osseous Structures of Humanity Is Reported—Profiteers Seemingly Got Busy.

This is not really as gruesome as it sounds, remarks a writer in London Answers. The most essential impedimenta of the medical student is a skeleton, and at the moment there is a considerable dearth in the latter commodity.

Before the war, medical men and students used to purchase the material required for carrying out anatomical examinations from Paris. Now, for some unaccountable reason, the supply has been greatly decreased, and, unhappily, the profiteer has also stepped in. Four or five guineas was the utmost asked for a complete skeleton in prewar times; now the price is at least ten guineas.

A certain humor is lent to the situation by the appearance in medical journals of advertisements asking the loan of a skeleton for a short period! It recalls the savory conversation between Bob Sawyer and his fellow student, Benjamin Allen, at the breakfast table, when Dingley Dellites were regaled with details concerning the competition for the possession of a skull at "Bart's."

AIRSHIP POSSIBILITIES.

Several American commissions have recently made an investigation into the aircraft conditions in different parts of the world, and they agree that the country has the opportunity to lead the world in civilian aeronautical activities and as a market for aircraft in 1920. It was the joint opinion of these commissions that the United States is ahead of all other countries in number of planes actually ordered and bought for civilian purposes, number of aerial transportation lines being organized, actual daily performance of the aerial mail service, and volume of mail carried, and possibilities for the use of aircraft for commercial purposes, and that the fact that the post office has proved that military planes can be converted into mail carriers makes possible the utilization of service planes to meet the immediate demand which manufacturers are unable to meet.

A TRAGEDY.

He—Life with me has been a failure.
She—You must have had and wasted some opportunity.
He—No; I have spent half my life raising whiskers to conceal my youth, and the other half dyeing them to conceal my age.

WINGED SHOES HERE

We now know that Mercury, the winged-footed god, was a married man. Here's the evidence, as Mrs. Mercury has evidently set the style which, for the moment at least, has appealed to mere earthly women, the feathered ankles. Paris took up the novelty first. Now American women are wearing the new shoes, and, of course, the poor birds will have to suffer more.

WOOD FAR AHEAD IN PRIMARIAL VOTE.

William Cooper Proctor, chairman of the Leonard Wood national campaign committee, gave out the following statement relative to the Nebraska returns:

Nebraska was a natural victory for Johnson, as so many distinct elements were co-operating in his favor, while the other vote was divided in the ratio of about 60 to 40 between Wood and General Pershing. In Nebraska as always where there has been any test of popular approval of Wood's candidacy, he has run first or second, yielding first place to Johnson only in Michigan and Nebraska, where he was a close second, defeating all other candidates. But the New Jersey and Ohio primaries are coming next Tuesday and Indiana on the following Tuesday, where there will be a different verdict.

The primary vote was:
Minnesota—Wood, 12,627; Johnson 8,517; Hoover, 4,481; Lowden, 3,510.
South Dakota—Wood, 29,302; Lowden, 25,701; Johnson, 23,594; Polndexter, 990.
Michigan—Johnson, 127,253; Wood, 83,747; Lowden, 46,107; Hoover, 41,544.

Wisconsin—La Follette, 7,389; Wood, 2,156; Hoover, 1,012; Johnson, 912; Lowden, 826. (All names written in.)
Illinois—Lowden, 222,982; Wood, 158,101; Johnson, 45,583.

Nebraska—Johnson, 24,410; Wood, 18,805; Pershing, 12,521.

This is a wonderful demonstration of the nation-wide interest and earnest approval of the American people in favor of Wood's candidacy. In all parts of the country, in all sorts of places, among all sorts of people, his candidacy is strong and this showing will mean his final indorsement in June at the Chicago convention.

Strong for "Setting Up."

"General Wood is a strong believer in the benefits of physical culture," writes Clive Newcome Hart, once his personal stenographer. "At intervals during the day, he will relieve the tedium of sitting still by standing before the open window, drawing deep breaths, and going through regular setting-up exercises. He will keep this up for five minutes or more, and at stated intervals throughout the day."

FORECAST GREATER WINTER WHEAT YIELD

Washington.—A slightly larger production of winter wheat than had been expected was forecast by the department of agriculture on the basis of the condition of the crop and acreage on May 1.

Total production was estimated at 484,647,000 bushels, or 1,930,000 more than was forecast as of last April 1. This total, however, is about 287,000,000 bushels less than last year's crop, a decrease of 33.3 per cent.

There was an improvement of 3.5 per cent in the condition of the crop during the month. During the winter 11.9 per cent of the acreage planted was abandoned, the total acreage remaining to be harvested being placed at 34,165,000.

Acreage of winter wheat May 1 and the forecast of production based on May 1 condition acreage by important states include:

Washington, 735,000 and 15,765,000.
 Oregon, 693,000 and 14,345,000.

POLES WIM WAY TO KIEV

Red Troops Evacuate City as Cavalry Enters.

Warsaw.—Polish cavalry entered the city of Kiev Saturday morning on the heels of the retreating bolsheviks. The infantry kept up its advance towards Kiev, cavalry detachments keeping contact with the infantry.

There was little fighting, according to reports reaching Polish headquarters in Warsaw, the cavalry going into the city all day as the infantry advanced in a great semi-circle.

A few machine gun shots were fired in the early morning as the cavalry appeared, but this was quickly silenced, and reports say that the evacuation of Kiev began soon afterward.

House Abandons Retail Sales Tax.

Washington.—Republican members of the house ways and means committee definitely decided to abandon the proposed 1 per cent retail sales tax for raising part of the money for the proposed soldier relief legislation.

Gibson May be Colby's Aid.

Washington.—It is understood on good authority that the post of assistant secretary of state has been offered to Hugh S. Gibson, at present American minister to the new republic of Poland.

MUSIC MAKERS HATED MUSIC

Many Famous Masters of Melody Were Very Far From Being Lovers of Its Sweet Sounds.

A great musician is not necessarily a music lover, a fact attested by many great music makers of the masculine gender—for instance, the deaf Beethoven, who was "surrounded by silence like a world walking among men." This master musician once declared that before he lost his hearing in his boyhood he had disliked music so much that his father had to drive him to the practice of the art.

Even Wagner hated a particular brand of music, described by him as a kind that "follows the rules and has no other reason for existence," as he hated also "that whole clinking, glistening show, grand opera!" Berlioz took greater pride in the fact that his requiem mass frightened one of the listeners into a fit than in his masterpiece, and Paganini often said that he would rather be praised for the grace of his bows to his audience than for his musical performance.—Marian Cox, in the Chicago Tribune.

SEEING 'MOVIES' IN DAYLIGHT

New Screen Idea Promises to Do Away With the Necessity of Darkened Theater.

The public of London, England, is interested in what is known as a Q. E. D. daylight cinematograph screen, whereby with the usual projecting apparatus pictures are produced in daylight equal in definition to those shown in darkened theaters. Heretofore, where this clear definition has been got in daylight, there was required a tremendous amount of electric current, and the consumption of the films has been correspondingly rapid. In the case of the Q. E. D. screen the amount of current for indoor use for daylight or artificial light is no greater than, or is below, the amount normally required in darkened moving picture theaters. If the invention works out, moving pictures can spread into countries where the natives will not go into darkened buildings, and needless to say the educational uses of moving pictures, both commercially and otherwise, will be multiplied.

THE DAYS BEYOND RECALL.

"With prices what they are today," said a representative, "it is strange to think that many a man remembers when good board was obtained in all our large cities at $3.50 or $4 a week.

"Two young printers from the country got work on a Philadelphia newspaper back in the '90s and took up their residence at a respectable boarding house in South Twelfth street.

"At dinner, the evening of their arrival, one of the printers was heard to whisper to the other:

"Take full help of both the turkey and the roast pork, Jim—$3.50 a week is no joke."—Washington Star.

SILK FROM SPIDER'S WEB.

Spider webs are commonly regarded as worthless, but if experiments now in progress on the island of Madagascar result in the discovery of a method for utilizing the material in a commercial way many articles at present made from silk are likely to be manufactured from this insect product. The thread produced by spiders is declared to be finer in quality, stronger and more beautifully colored than that obtained from silkworms.—Popular Mechanics Magazine.

YIELDING TO THE LAW.

"What's the matter here, bartender? Can't I get a drink?"
 "Sorry, sir. Nothing stronger than beer."
 "But you just served the man next to me with a real drink. I saw it."
 "Yes, but that feller's a government inspector and comes here regular. I'd be pinched sure if I didn't serve him."—New York Evening Post.

FOOTPRINTS.

"Do you expect to leave footprints in the sands of time?"
 "Yes," replied Senator Sorghum, "but the sands of time get so track-over by folks running for office that I don't suppose my footprints will get any special notice."

MOVIE NOTES

A very small crowd was out to last week's show. The best pictures obtainable have been given. All shows played here have previously been given at the Liberty, Coliseum, Strand and Mission in Seattle. This proves the class of pictures. So let's have better attendance. The past two weeks the show has not made expenses. We don't want to be forced to lower the grade of pictures.

"Miracle Man," May 14-15.

The Carver Brothers big chicken ranch is the scene of unusual activity this week, as Magowan and Morford are busily engaged here moving a number of buildings to make the handling of their rapidly growing poultry business more easy and convenient.

At last we have it—"The Miracle Man" is to be here this Friday and Saturday. It is beyond a doubt, as the crowds have proven, the best play ever put on in Seattle. Thousands were turned away during the three weeks it was at the Strand. The admission charged by the Movie Theatre is ridiculously low for such a master production—only 40c and 20c for the best 8-reel show ever filmed.

This paper has been advised that residents of the Islands would do well to keep an eye on suspicious-looking characters at this time.

Ross Magowan and sister, Miss Lola, students at the University of Washington, spent the week end beneath the parental home. They were accompanied by Miss Katherine Cochran who is also a student of the University. The Magowan family entertained the Noyes and Smoek families at a picnic dinner at Vashon Beach on Sunday afternoon.

Look!

Why not buy a real farm all cleared and ready to plant to Loganberries?

The canneries are contracting for Loganberries at 12 cents a pound this year and the price ought to be good as long as we have Prohibition.

An acre of Logans ought to bring $400. net the third year and from $500. to $600. net a year after that.

I have for quick sale 32 acres, with 29 acres cleared and ready to plant this fall to berries; with 9 room modern house with bath, hot and cold water, electric lights fire place and two sleeping porches; large barn, chicken house and other out buildings; well, 140 feet deep, two horse motor with pump; one-acre of Loganberries that ought to furnish plants to set out acres this fall besides making $500 to $600 this year.

The price on this place is right, but if you are interested you want to talk quick. One man let three places get away from him in a month by putting off for a week.

It takes $5000. cash to handle, balance to suit at 7 per cent.

Other smaller places, improved and unimproved.

TO BREAK THE BACKBONE OF HIGH PRICES---

Throwing aside all precedent and the policy which has characterized the Lundquist-Lilly Store for so many years, and following the lead of the greatest merchants in the country in an attempt to stop the ever rising cost of merchandise we have determined to reduce our already Rock Bottom Prices to a level which has not been known for a very long time. Never once during the eight years history of this great Upstairs Clothing Store has there ever been held what is commonly called a "Sale". Our method of pricing every garment to sell at the lowest possible margin of profit has simply made a "Reduction Sale" impossible.

But With Our Tremendous Stock which was bought so wisely, so well, and so far ahead of the market, we are able to make this undoubted sacrifice to fill the present demand for lower prices and those who know from past experience how very low our prices always have been, and how very high has always been the quality of the merchandise we have handled, will be quick to appreciate the remarkable significance of this epoch making event.

LITTLE CHEESE IN EUROPE.

War conditions created havoc in the cheese trade of European countries. It is estimated that 3,000,000 to 5,000,000 dairy cattle were destroyed during the five years of war. The output of dairy products has decreased enormously, more than the number of cattle, owing to the shortage of food-stuffs and labor. It will therefore take several years for Europe to get back to its normal output of cheese.

WILL PROVE AN ATTRACTION

The following news item is copied from a Tacoma paper:
The development of 200 acres on the south end of Vashon Island, directly tributary to the new Vashon Island-Tacoma ferry, is planned by a new realty company that has been organized in Tacoma and which recently purchased the tract. The company will be known as the Vashon Island Realty Company, and has opened temporary offices in the Tacoma Building. Millard F. Shaw is president of the new company; Dr. J. A. Caswell, vice president; and Paul S. Savidge, A. R. Pleasants and A. O. Burmeister members of the board of trustees. It is capitalized at $100,000.

The company's land is that through which a new road has been built to Clam Cove, the landing point of the new ferry service. The property is to be subdivided into residential and small farm lots and is believed will attract many Tacoma people. It is the intention to commence development at once and to have some of the property ready for settlement this season. A store will be located there very soon and inducements will be made to the right parties to build a large hotel.

"This point on the Island is considered the most beautiful view point in the vicinity of Tacoma, and as it will be within ten or twelve minutes by ferry from Point Defiance it is believed it will soon become a prominent suburb.

"The ferry will begin regular service between Point Defiance and the south end of the Island on Saturday, May 15th. Plans are being worked out by a joint committee from the Tacoma and Vashon Commercial Clubs to make the day the biggest ever.

"The name of the winner of the $50 prize being offered by a committee of the Tacoma Commercial Club for the most appropriate name for the ferry landing on the Island will be announced on the day of the ferry opening."

The eel was caught in a creek in the suburbs of Christiania by Dr. Clement Nilssen. It was then no longer than an average earth worm. It is now nearly two feet in length and three inches in diameter.

The United States botanic garden at the foot of Capitol hill, Washington, between Pennsylvania and Maryland avenues and First and Third streets west, will be 100 years old on May 8, for it was on May 8, 1820, that the use of five acres of land was granted by congress for a botanical garden, and four years later, on May 26, 1824, the area of this grant was extended.
