VOLUME IV. VASHON, KING COUNTY, WASHINGTON, THURSDAY, MAY 27, 1920. NUMBER 32.

Vashon Island Leads Them All

Report of Western Washington Egg-Laying Contest For the Month of April

The production for April has been all that could be expected. The birds are out on their green runs every day and are fed an additional supply of lawn clippings each evening, and May 1st showed the total daily egg yield of all birds in the contest to be on the increase.

As foretold in the March report some of the immature entries are now coming to the front. The Gilbert entry from Vashon leads for April with 124 eggs and the Burnett leghorns, also a late hatched entry, is second with 118 for the month.

The high hen contest is a thriller. Last month Carvers', Vashon, No. 2 had nosed out Towne's No. 32 with which it had been tied for 60 days, but No. 2 laid off for several days in April and allowed both No. 32 and Geo. W. Holt's No. 153, which has been at the top before, to pass her. Number 2 is now tied with Hollywood's No. 79 for third place.

The Oregon Agricultural College's Barred Rocks still lead the contest. All of the leading pens have been fortunate to date in not having any broody birds.

The high hen in production and value of eggs for the month is again the White Wyandotte entry from "Just-A-Mere-Croft" ranch with 30 eggs for April, making a total consecutive lay of 61 eggs in 61 days.

Feed prices for the month of April were as follows: Dry Mash $70, Oats $72, Scratch $83, Shell $22, per ton; Milk $1 per cwt.; Blood $0.45 per lb.

The average feed cost for April per pen (6 birds) of the Americans, including the Rocks, Wyandottes, Rhode Island Reds and Rhode Island Whites, was $2.058 or $3.43 per bird. The average feed cost for the Mediterraneans, including the Leghorns, Oregonians and Anconas, was $1.867 per pen (6 birds), or $3.11 per bird.

The average net price received for Experiment Station eggs for the month of April was $3.8 for standards and $3.3 for pullets.

Geo. R. Shoup, Poultryman.

SO FAR THE RECORD

L. C. Beall, Jr. is interested in the development of Vashon Island in general, and of the poultry business on the Island in particular. Recently he paid $250. for a single leghorn cockerel and claims he was worth the money. He has just informed us that he gathered his first pullet egg last week from a fowl which had been hatched just 110 days.

A little girl crossing the street one day last week, tripped on the broken walk which threw her against the porch in front of the post office, making her nose bleed profusely and bruising the little face, besides frightening the child. A Burton citizen who witnessed the accident indignantly remarked, "Why don't they fix the sidewalk!", and we wondered who were meant by "they"—if we are not all responsible for the condition of things. Only by concerted action can anything be accomplished worth while. Why don't we fix the sidewalks!

Birthday-Wedding Anniversary At Burton

Mrs. Chas. Steinmetz and Mrs. J. A. Lindstrom united as hostesses in entertaining the Chess Club at dinner in honor of a double event, the date Monday May 23rd, being the tenth wedding anniversary of Mr. and Mrs. Steinmetz and the birthday of Mr. Lindstrom. The company gathered about the beautifully decorated and bountifully provided table at seven o'clock, the feast ending with the bringing in of the lighted birthday cake which was carried upon a standard, donated in honor of the wedding anniversary. In the manner of a brides shower bouquet, lilies of the valley and white grape hyacinth were the flowers for the evening. After dinner came a renewal of the ceremony of ten years ago; the bride garbed in her beautiful white satin wedding gown and flowing veil, having for her flower girls her two little daughters and for her pages her two sons. To be sure, the officiating gentleman got a little mixed between the forms of a trial before a J. P. and the wedding ritual but the witnesses pronounced it in every way a most effective ceremony and perfectly good for another ten years of happiness. The bride's bouquet was caught by one of the Island's popular young bachelors. The part of the evening devoted to the quiet game of chess was unusually short, there being a great inclination on the part of all to linger around the fire with reminiscent talk. Those present, in addition to the hostesses and their husbands, were Mr. and Mrs. Van House, Mr. Kenneth Van House, Mr. and Mrs. H. Keating, Mr. and Mrs. W. G. Parkes, Mr. and Mrs. F. C. Heilge, Mr. Burt Stanley and Mr. Alex Smith.

Old Hotel Building Sold to Seattle Men

To be Put in First Class Repair At Once And Operated As Garage

Through the Chas. B. Taylor real estate agency a deal was closed this week whereby the old brick hotel building here, with 50 foot frontage, was sold to Messrs Mallock and Menzner who will thoroughly repair and remodel the building and open up a general garage business. We understand Mr. Mallock is one of the really good mechanics in Seattle and he expects to move his family to the Island as soon as he can find a suitable residence. The new firm will take over the agency for one or two standard cars, will do general repair work, conduct a livery business, and give their entire attention to their line of work.

We learn, with sorrow, from Mrs. Rhoda Meers of the sudden death of her son, Jackson Meers, at Tientsin China. Soon after Jackson enlisted, his regiment was sent to Siberia and later to the Philippines; he transferred to the 15th Infantry, Co. G., and died at Tientsin, China, of pneumonia on May 15th.

One feels moved to add a mite to the effort of the Literary Digest to arouse public opinion, and through it Congress, to a sense of the injustice and folly of permitting our postal employees to go underpaid and the victims of a narrow and stingy policy. No branch of Government activity touches as many people so much of the time or is more important to the general welfare. Let us all respond to the Digest's appeal in its number of May 22nd and try to have these wrongs righted.

Up to date the Department of Justice has deported 323 radicals and turned a blind eye on 387,642 food profiteers.

Vashon-Maury Islands: The choicest territory between Seattle and Tacoma.

A SMALL TOWN

The writer once heard a really intelligent person make the remark that a small town like Vashon "was terribly firesome" and that this person found it necessary to go to a large city each year to get "intellectual atmosphere."

Were it not for the fact that many people agree with the above remark, we would not be writing about it this week. To us it really appears as the remark of one ry Doctor" for a truly great physician, Mozart's life for a great musician, William Wirt for a great lawyer, and the life of Jesus for the greatest preacher on earth.

COURTESY—AN ASSET

It was David Harum who observed there was more or less human nature about everybody. It has been the experience of the News-Record man that a small town Station Agent is usually about as important feeling as the German Kaiser was on or about August 1st, 1914. As a rule they give you the impression of owning a majority of the stock of the railroad for which they work.

Happily there is at least one exception to the rule—and that is in the person of W. P. Wood, the O. W. R. agent at Kent, Washington. When the editor of this paper moved from Idaho he shipped a car of what the railroads term "emigrant movables" to Kent. The agent at the Idaho end made a mistake in billing the car out, and it looked like a hold up, and a mix up, and an overcharge, and several other things, at this end. However, when the whole matter was explained to Agent Wood, he obligingly said he could adjust the matter at this end, and he wrote down some notation which we signed—he was paid the freight and turned over the release of the car without delay.

It was a small matter for him, but would have been a big matter for us. As a student of human psychology we were interested in knowing just what attitude Mr. Wood would assume, and were happily disappointed in finding in him the elements of obliging courtesy, with the milk of human kindness coursing through his veins. If we can do him a kind turn it will be a pleasure, for he has made a friend out of us, merely by giving us five minutes of unnecessary attention at a time when we really needed it. Courtesy pays.

Robert M. Jones, founder of the Vashon Island Record, which he later consolidated with the News, has sold his interest in the paper to P. Monroe Smock, an experienced newspaper man who comes from New Plymouth, Idaho. Mr. Jones has made one of the best country weeklies in the state and his retirement, because of ill health, will be sincerely regretted by his brethren of the craft. —Auburn Globe-Republican

1920 CENSUS REPORTS

Seattleites are wearing the old fashioned, Mona Lisa smile these days as the census returns for 1920 come in. It is true that some over optimistic boosters were claiming about 400,000 people for the big town, but Uncle Sam is kind enough when he gave her, for this decennial count, the sum of 315,652, being a gain in ten years of 78,458 or more than 33 per cent.

On the other hand Spokaneites claim the wind "was in the east" when her people were counted in 1920. The official count in 1920 gave the Inland Empire city 198 less members than she had in her family in 1910. She is hoping the wind will change before another decade passes, and expects to add enough to her number during the coming ten years to make up for lost time during the decade just closing.

Tacoma, like one of the bible cities, was "neither hot nor cold", but struck a happy mean between the two extremes, with an increase of 13,222 persons, or about 16 per cent. The 1920 count gives her 96,965 to her credit, which is only 7,239 less than Spokane. There will be a merry race on between these two cities for first place in 1930, and with the new ferry and Vashon Island's help, we are betting Tacoma will win.

Portland is rather a surprise to the web-footed boosters. Some were making claims that she would run away with Seattle, and that her rate of increase would bedazzle the eye. However, our Uncle Sam, who as Ring Lardner would say, is "neutral", could only find 258,288 heads there to count in 1920. While some of our Idaho readers have been led to believe that Portland is the end of the world, and that over her gateway is found the motto: "No Plus Ultra"—this will remind them of Tacoma and Seattle which are still on the map!

The Vashon Island News-Record, published at Vashon, King County, Washington, reaches our exchange table. It is edited by P. Monroe Smock, who recently was located at New Plymouth, Idaho. The News-Record is a live publication of twelve pages, well filled with reading matter and advertising and gives evidence of prosperity. We congratulate Bro. Smock on tying up to such a prosperous looking sheet, and he has the ability necessary to continue making his new acquisition a success. We might add that Mr. Smock's wife is a former Bellevue girl, Miss Agnes May Lias.—Bellevue (Ia) Leader.

A man who was too stingy to subscribe for his home paper sent his little boy to borrow the copy taken by a neighbor. In his haste the boy ran over a $4 stand of bees and in ten minutes looked like a warty summer squash. His father ran to his assistance, and failing to notice the barb wire fence, ran into that, cutting a hole in his anatomy and ruining a $10 pair of trousers. The old cow took advantage of the gap in the fence and got into the corn field and killed herself eating green corn. Hearing a racket, the wife ran out, upset a four-gallon churn full of cream into a basket of little chickens, drowning the entire hatch. In her haste she dropped a $35 set of false teeth. The baby having been left alone, crawled through the milk into the parlor, ruining a brand-new $25 carpet. During the excitement the oldest daughter ran away with the hired man, the dog broke up 11 setting hens and the calves got out and chewed the tails of four shirts on the clothes line.

IT SEEMED LOGICAL

One day at dinner a physician explained to his little daughter where meats come from. "They take a cow and kill it," he said, "remove the hide, cut up the flesh, cook it, and that is the beef you eat."

The little girl's face showed her astonishment, and as her father went on to tell of pork, mutton and chicken her amazement grew until she could restrain herself no longer.

"Oh, papa, papa," she broke forth, "when they make angel cake do they kill an angel?"—Youth's Companion.

AGREE ON DIVISION OF GERMAN INDEMNITY

Paris.—France is to receive 55 per cent of Germany's indemnity, Great Britain 25 per cent, and the remainder is to be divided between Belgium, Italy, and Serbia, Premier Millerand told the finance and foreign affairs committee of the chamber of deputies in explaining his recent conversations with Premier Lloyd George at Hythe. The proportions to be allotted France and Great Britain, he declared, had been agreed upon by the peace conference.

M. Millerand stated that the rate of interest to be demanded from Germany on the 129,000,000,000 marks indemnity she was to pay had not been determined, but he believed it would not be less than 5 per cent plus a 1 per cent redeeming rate for the holders of gold bonds which Germany must issue.

IN HONOR OF JAMES WATT

Special Ceremonies Held in England on Anniversary of Death of Great Inventor.

The hundredth anniversary of the death of James Watt, the chief contributor to the invention of the steam engine, was commemorated by special ceremonies at Birmingham, England, September 16-18. The university held a degree congregation for conferring honorary degrees on distinguished engineers and men of science, and visitors were given an opportunity of seeing two of Watt's engines at work. Funds are being raised to endow at the University of Birmingham a James Watt chair of engineering for the promotion of research in the fundamental principles underlying the production of power and the study of the conservation of the natural sources of energy; also to erect a memorial building, which will house a Watt museum, besides serving other purposes in connection with engineering. A memorial volume is also to be published.—Scientific American.

PRIMITIVE PLUMBAGO MINING.

There are now about 1,000 plumbago mines in Ceylon, including all the shallow pits, open works, and deep mines. The depth varies from a few yards to as much as 700 feet. Most of the mines are worked by natives, the only important one controlled by Europeans being the Medapola. At the majority of the mines the only machinery used is the "Adabare." This consists of a long wooden barrel with handles at each end. Round this a rope is given two or three turns and a bucket fastened to each end. It is worked by seven or eight men turning the handle.

FILIPINOS WANT AMERICA TO GIVE INDEPENDENCE

Maximo M. Kalaw Declares U. S. Cannot Consistently Refuse "Self-Determination."

By MAXIMO M. KALAW, Secretary of the Philippine Mission, Author "The Case for the Philippines," "Self-Government in the Philippines," etc.

"When they show sufficient capacity," "When they are able to govern themselves," "When they are educated enough." Thus run the answers of many Americans pressed with the question as to when the Filipinos should be granted their independence. Now, "ability," "capacity" and "sufficient education"—What do they mean in black and white?

Senator Shogun may think no people is capable of self-government that does not establish the judicial recall, or that has no Billy Sunday. John Smith of Somerville may think no people is capable of self-government that does not vote his democratic ticket, or go to church on Sundays.

"Capacity for self-government" is as broad and elastic as the world, and if that should be the criterion for the granting of Philippine independence, America might as well say to the Filipinos, "I will give you independence when it pleases me to do so."

Fortunately, the American promise to the Philippines is not based on such obscure and abstract conditions. It is based on a definite, tangible thing. When America, through her Congress, officially told the Filipino people that they would be granted their independence as soon as they could establish a stable government, no abstract or obscure condition was meant. Stable government, according to American usage, means a certain, definite thing.

The United States promised the Cubans the same thing, that "when they have established a stable government, then American troops would be withdrawn." As soon as the Cuban people elected a government suited to themselves, capable of maintaining order and fulfilling all international obligations, there was a stable government in Cuba, and American troops were withdrawn.

When Congress passed the Jones law, it simply borrowed the phrase "stable government" from the Cuban history and applied it to the Philippines. The history of Philippine legislation shows that in black and white. With full knowledge of what it meant, the Filipino people accepted the Jones law and immediately began setting up the stable government required by Congress as a pre-requisite to independence. The stable government is now a fact. It is indeed more than that; it is an undisputed fact.

The official representative of the United States in the Philippine Islands, the Governor General, reported to the American Congress and the administration that "the Filipino people have established the stable government demanded by Congress as a pre-requisite for the granting of independence—namely, a government elected by the suffrage of the people, which is supported by the people, which is capable of maintaining order and of fulfilling its international obligations."

The Philippine question is therefore no longer a question of politics, argument or supposition. To the Philippine mind, at least, it is now a question of whether the United States is ready to discharge its own obligations fully and completely. America went before the world in the recent war as the avowed champion of "self-determination" and Filipinos cannot see how America can consistently refuse to act.

The Filipino people, however, have no grudge or grievance against the American people. There is a message of friendship and gratitude. They seek independence as the natural and logical outcome of America's policy in the islands and of America's solemn promise to them. They come willing to give privileges and concessions not incompatible with their national welfare.

The Filipino people are willing to accept independence under any of the following conditions: Under a League of Nations, guaranteeing its territorial integrity; under the protectorateship of the United States for the first few years; under a treaty of neutrality between the United States, England, Japan, France and other powers, or even without any condition whatever—absolute and complete independence. They have no fear of Japan. Philippine independence, in our opinion, is not inimical to Japanese interests. The Japanese are now free to come to the Philippines, but at the present time there are less than 10,000 Japanese in the islands. There are six times as many Japanese in California as there are in the entire Philippine Archipelago.

The Filipinos are willing to take their chance as a nation. Smaller nations beset by graver problems and dangers have taken a more hazardous chance at freedom, and have succeeded.

MEET THE DE VEYRA FAMILY! They Are Putting the Philippines on the Map in Washington

Hon. Jaime C. de Veyra, Who Has Just Been Re-elected as Philippine Commissioner to the U. S.

Mrs. Jaime C. de Veyra. She is Doing Important Work for Her People in America.

THE CHILDREN OF THE PHILIPPINE COMMISSIONER. The Baby of This Group Speaks Three Languages—Visayan, Spanish and English.

Permit us to present the De Veyra family.

The Hon. Jaime C. de Veyra is the Resident Commissioner from the Philippine Islands to the United States and has just been elected to a second term of three years. As Resident Commissioner he has a seat on the floor of the American Congress, the privilege of taking part in debates, although no vote.

Commissioner de Veyra has an interesting wife and four bright Filipino kiddies. The De Veyra family, individually and collectively, constitute the best argument as to the tact and capabilities of Filipinos that the Philippine Islands have in Washington.

The commissioner is a 100 per cent Filipino, a Visayan, and is one of the foremost leaders of the party in power in the islands. During American occupation he has been successively governor of his province, member of the Philippine legislature, cabinet member and executive secretary of the islands.

Like many statesmen of the Philippines, he was originally a newspaper man. He was one of the founders of El Nuevo Dia of Cebu, the first Filipino paper published advocating Philippine independence. The paper came under the censorship of General McIntyre, and on the appearance of the first number the editors were left in the singular position of seeing every prominent article blue penciled.

Mrs. de Veyra, like her husband, is a "live wire" in the Philippines' cause. She is the best known Filipina in America. She is an interesting public speaker and is constantly giving illustrated lectures at women's clubs and other gatherings. Mrs. de Veyra is a publicity bureau all in herself and has put the Philippines on the map, so far as the women folk of Washington congressional circles are concerned.

"I find that the Filipino people have been much misrepresented in the United States," says Mrs. de Veyra. "I do not mean to infer we are perfect, for we are not. My people have most of the defects, I suppose, that other humans have, but at the same time we are far from the people that many Americans have been made to believe. Not only are we a Christian people, but our race has a history that we are not ashamed of. Throughout the Philippine Islands the people are now working earnestly to improve themselves and their conditions so they will be prepared to take over their own affairs. We all love America for giving us a chance to help ourselves and for having promised us our independence, which is one of the dearest desires of the entire citizenship of the islands."

To American women whose ideas of Filipinos have been founded on Sunday supplement descriptions of wild tribes, Mrs. de Veyra's gentle manner and evident culture have been a revelation. She is sought by women's clubs because of her charming manner as an impromptu speaker on the subject nearest her heart—the women of her country.

At a recent Washington gathering she gave in perfect English a concise account of the work of a woman's club in Manila which supplies milk to the babies of the poor and trains mothers to care for their young children. She told of another woman's club which has branches all over the Philippine Islands and which maintains day nurseries for the children of the working women, provides Christmas cheer for the lepers, the insane and the convicts, and gathers data to influence legislation for the benefit of Filipino women and children.

The four little De Veyras, shown in the picture, having attended the public schools in Manila, slipped right into the same grades in the schools of Washington. Even little Mary, the baby of the family, speaks three languages—her native tongue, Spanish and English.

Here's indisputable evidence that the Filipino people have been Americanized! The great American game of baseball is the rage in the islands. This photograph shows a parade which preceded one of the big games in Manila. Baseball is played from one end of the archipelago to the other, and, as in other branches of athletic sports, some classy players have been developed.

2ND MISSION COMES FROM PHILIPPINES

Body Headed by Senate President Quezon Reiterates Demand for Independence.

That the Filipino people are in earnest in their demand for immediate independence is indicated by the coming to the United States of a second Philippine mission to work for independence. Coincident with this announcement the War Department received a cable from Manila stating that the all-Filipino legislature had adopted resolutions reiterating its plea for immediate independence.

The second mission, like the first, is composed of the leading men of the islands and will work in the United States not only for immediate independence, but also to bring about "better understanding, greater confidence and closer economic relations between the United States and the Philippines."

The mission is again headed by Manuel L. Quezon, president of the Philippine Senate, who is well known in America, having been for six years resident commissioner to the United States.

Senate President Manuel L. Quezon.

Mr. Quezon and the Hon. Sergio Osmena, Speaker of the Philippine House of Representatives and Vice President of the Council of State, are the leaders of the Nacionalista party, which has been in power since 1907.

While Speaker Osmena is not so well known in the United States as Quezon, he is considered one of the ablest men in the islands. Senate President Quezon recently referred to Osmena as "the greatest Filipino since Rizal."

The personal relations between Osmena and Quezon are probably without a parallel in modern politics. They have been the leading political figures in the islands for 12 years, yet there has never been the slightest indication of rivalry between them. Throughout their college life as well as their long political service each has refused to be a candidate for any position that the other aspired to.

During the years Quezon was the Philippine delegate in the American Congress he won the esteem and confidence of both the Republican and Democratic sides of the chamber. Whenever he spoke he was assured of a good attendance. One of the official short hand reporters once declared Quezon used the purest English of any member of the House.

Osmena, as president of the Nacionalista party, is the leader of the national movement for independence.

"Osmena is the premier 'de facto' of the Philippines," said a leading Filipino.

Speaker Sergio Osmena.

no journalist, now in America. "A very conscientious and tireless worker, thorough and persistent, a genius for grasping the big features as well as the smallest details of public affairs, cool headed, quiet by temperament and education, a deep thinker, an eloquent speaker, a polished writer, a keen observer of men—such is Osmena."

Both Osmena and Quezon have been consistent advocates of Philippine independence, yet when the occasion demanded it they have never hesitated to champion the cause of America's good intentions toward the Filipino people.

SENATOR CHAMBERLAIN

United States Senator Geo. E. Chamberlain, democrat, renominated in the Oregon primaries.

JOHNSON WINS IN OREGON PRIMARY

Portland, Or.—Hiram Johnson apparently carried Oregon in the contest for the Republican endorsement for the nomination for president of the United States in the Oregon primary elections by a narrow plurality. While the returns point to Johnson as the choice of or plurality choice of Oregon republicans, there is a bare chance that the indications may be upset or the final result postponed until the final canvass or official canvass has been made.

Lowden ran a poor third, behind Wood and Hoover was fourth, just behind Lowden.

Senator Chamberlain was renominated by the Democrats for the United States senate by a vote of almost two to one. In all parts of Oregon Senator Chamberlain ran far ahead of Harvey G. Starkweather.

R. N. Stanfield, was nominated by the Republicans by a vote of much more than two to one over Abraham.

BRIEF GENERAL NEWS

Thousands of dollars worth of damage to crops in Linn and Benton counties, Iowa, was caused by a cloudburst.

The forty-five million dollar soldier bonus bill passed by the New York legislature was signed by Governor Smith.

Approximately 400,000 new members were obtained last week in the American Legion nation-wide campaign for increased membership.

General Alexis Brusiloff, Russian military leader, has assumed virtually supreme control in Russia, as far as military affairs are concerned, according to reports.

The National Preservers' and Fruit Products association has announced that its members will stay out of the sugar market until the price of sugar comes down from its present high level.

Influenced by the nation-wide price-cutting agitation that is steadily gaining ground, the principal commodity markets of the country continued to "mark down" quoted values. Cotton, sugar and corn options broke violently.

Plans for financing preliminary investigation work on the Columbia Basin Irrigation district project, comprising about 2,000,000 acres in the Big Bend country in Eastern Washington, were discussed by financiers and business men of Seattle, Spokane, Tacoma and Portland at a meeting held in Portland.

$5 Wheat Possible, Says Hill.

Seattle.—"It is not unreasonable to expect $5 wheat next winter or some time before the next crop year," said Louis W. Hill, chairman of the Great Northern railroad while here en route East from San Francisco. Crop shortage and impossibility of farmers to get labor he gave as reason for advanced wheat prices.

War Nurses' Bodies Arrive.

New York.—The bodies of ten women war nurses who died overseas on duty at army base hospitals and the first to be brought home, arrived here on the transport Princess Matoka. On board also were the bodies of 418 soldiers who lost their lives in accidents or succumbed to wounds and disease.

House Passes Hawaiian Land Bill.

Washington.—The House passed a bill setting aside 200,000 acres of land in the Hawaiian islands for homestead purposes available to native Hawaiians only. The territorial legislature urged the step, which was expected to rehabilitate the Hawaiian race, said to be fast dying out.

PRES. CARRANZA IS ASSASSINATED

Colonel Herrero, ex-Federal Officer, Reported Responsible for Death.

El Paso, Texas.—Venustiano Carranza, president of Mexico and head of the seventy-second government that country has had since 1821, was assassinated by Colonel Rodolfo Herrero and his soldiers at Tlaxcalteango, Puebla, according to messages received here from General Alvaro Obregon, dated at Mexico City.

Reports given out by the revolutionists said Carranza was assassinated by his own men. Herrero was described as an ex-federal officer.

From the wording of the Obregon telegram, skepticism was expressed here by many persons in close touch with the revolution concerning the affiliations of Herrero. The anxiety of the Mexicans on this point was laid to the concern over what the attitude of the United States might be if the reported assassination was laid to the revolutionists.

Carranza, accompanied by his ministers and a heavy force of troops, fled from Mexico City May 6. He took with him an immense amount of gold and silver money and bullion, a considerable quantity of which was retaken by the revolutionary troops under General Sanchez after the battle at San Marcos on the Vera Cruz-Mexico City railway.

The Carranza party were deep in the Sierra Madre mountains when the attack was made and were evidently attempting to reach the east coast.

HOUSE ADOPTS THE PEACE RESOLUTION

Washington.—The house adopted the senate resolution, repealing the resolution by congress declaring a state of war with Germany and Austria, by a vote of 228 to 139. The vote was along strict party lines except that 19 democrats joined republicans in supporting the measure, while two republicans—Kelly of Michigan and Fuller of Massachusetts—opposed it.

From the size of the republican vote it was clearly indicated that the resolution could not be passed over the veto of the president. The senate vote on passage was 43 to 33.

Summarized, the peace resolution provides:

A congressional declaration of the termination of the war by repealing the resolutions of April 6, 1917, and December 1, 1917, which declared war against Germany and Austria-Hungary, respectively.

Repeal of the war legislation.

A reservation of all rights accruing to the United States under the armistice and the treaty of Versailles.

ARMENIA CHARGE ACCEPTED

United States Will Act As Boundary Arbitrator.

Paris.—Ambassador Wallace informed the council of ambassadors that President Wilson had announced that the United States would accept the role of arbitrator in fixing the boundaries of Armenia.

The council of ambassadors have discussed the contention of the Germans that war material destroyed by them remained their property. It was decided that armaments, whether destroyed or delivered to the allies, according to the terms of the treaty, must be considered allied property.

The peace treaty with Hungary, it was decided by the council of ambassadors, will be signed in the Grand Trianon palace at Versailles June 4.

Portland Has Big Fire.

Portland, Or.—Damage estimated at between $600,000 and $1,000,000 was wrought by a disastrous fire which completely destroyed the plant of the North Portland Box company and the wooden shipbuilding plant of the Standifer corporation in the industrial district, below Kenton Sunday. Destruction of the entire district of industrial plants was narrowly averted.

Legion Would Readopt Orphans.

Indianapolis, Ind.—The American Legion has inaugurated a campaign for the readoption of approximately 3000 of the more than 3700 fatherless French children whom the American expeditionary force cared for during the war.

Cigarette Blamed for $300,000 Blaze.

Twin Falls, Idaho.—Fire, supposed to have been started by a discarded cigarette, destroyed more than half a business block here, causing a loss of approximately $300,000.

American Tourists Crowd Paris Hotels.

Paris.—Great difficulties are being encountered by Paris hotels in providing accommodations for the thousands of American tourists who are flocking to the city.

CABBAGE DAY IN THE FLAT

None Can Move, So Tenants of New York Building Agreed Upon a Compromise.

It used to be that a dweller in one of those apartment houses where cabbage is cooked every so often, moved when his or her olfactory nerves were assailed too often by the aroma of the cooking. Nowadays, however, one cannot be choiced. There are no places to move to, and any port is better than no wine at all, writes the New York correspondent of the Pittsburgh Dispatch.

Such being the case, an armistice has been arranged in most apartment buildings. Meetings have been held, present at which were all the housewives living in the places affected. A schedule has been arranged so that those who cook cabbage or sauer kraut will all cook it the same day. In this way the pot can't call the kettle black; and there will be no room for kicking. Those who do not indulge in the delicacies have reserved the right to absent themselves on these "cabbage" days, taking their meals out or going hungry. It looks like a good plan and one that is certain to find favor, if not favor.

CHANGED HIS READING.

The two vets shook hands—it was their first meeting since their discharge—fell to talking about St. Nazaire; and then asked each other what had become of the members of the old squad, relates the Home Sector. "And oh, yes—there's Muggs—Muggs that began to read the 'Life of Napoleon' as soon as they made him a corporal. What's become of him?" inquired the first. "Oh," replied the other, "he's working in a garage—pumped ten gallons of gas into my car the other day. Tells me he's reading the 'Life of Rockefeller.'"

"The young baker you knew went on the stage in character parts."

"Indeed? How did his roles pan out?"

WORK BEGINS TO END FREIGHT CONGESTION

Committees Formed at Important Points to Keep Cars Moving.

Washington.—Attack on the freight congestion which has threatened to paralyze the national arteries of transportation will be concentrated immediately at a score of junction points, operating officials of the American Railway association were instructed.

Formation of committees at each of 30 "gateways" was ordered, the duties of which will be to dig cars out of the mass and see that they are forwarded expeditiously.

These instructions were supplemental to the action of the interstate commerce commission covering drastic re-routing and equipment pooling, which were designed to deal with the congestion as a whole.

The car committee began work Monday at the following cities:

Omaha, Seattle, Baltimore, Cincinnati, Youngstown, O.; Minneapolis, St. Paul, Norfolk, New York, St. Louis, Boston, Denver, Philadelphia, Buffalo, Portland, Or.; Peoria, Birmingham, Kansas City, Cleveland, Detroit, Washington, D. C.; New Orleans, Pittsburg, Louisville, Galveston, Atlanta, San Francisco, Dallas, Toledo and Chicago.

As a step to permanently relieve car shortage, which threatens to disrupt transportation, the interstate commerce commission has decided that $1,000,000 of the $300,000,000 revolving fund provided by the Esch-Cummings law be made available quickly for purchase of railroad rolling stock.

Washington.—A senate investigation of the pre-convention campaigning expenses and pledges of presidential candidates has been started. Telegraphic requests were sent to the campaign managers of leading candidates to attend the sessions which began here Monday.

Senator Kenyon's associates in the work, as named by Chairman Dillingham of the elections committee, are Senators Spencer of Missouri and Edge of New Jersey, republicans, and Senators Reed of Missouri and Pomerehne of Ohio, democrats.

Senator Kenyon announced that the investigation was not aimed at the support or opposition of any candidate, but that it would be pushed to a conclusion before the conventions, if possible, with the object of determining if there was need for legislation to prevent corrupt practices.

ANIMALS OF LONG PEDIGREE

White Horses Once Used by British Royalty Lined Descendants of Early Famous Quadrupeds.

White horses figure as the badge of more than one German princely family, and notably in that of the house of Hanover (as may be seen in St. George's chapel, at Windsor). But that is not all. The white horses which down to the present year drew the royal successors of George I are descended from the stud of white horses kept at Hanover in old days, and ever maintained there long after that kingdom had been annexed by Prussia. As in the case of the Battak ponies, true albinos with red eyes are said to have occurred not infrequently in this stock. There is, therefore, a high probability that the famous royal white carriage horses now discarded are the lineal descendants, if not by blood, at least by ritual, of the sacred white horses which on solemn occasions were conducted under the sacred car by kings and priests in old Teutonic pagan days.—London Times.

SWARMING TIME

A small hand forcing pump is the finest thing in the world to drive a swarm almost where you want it like a flock of sheep. The spray above and around them makes them think it will be best to cluster immediately.

For best results, hive the swarm in a movable frame with foundation starters in the frames. Place the new swarm on the old stand of the parent hive and move the parent hive a foot or more away with the entrance facing the opposite direction from what it was. Leave it a week in this position and then move it away to another place. This will give the new swarm an enormous force of bees, and supers should be placed on it immediately after hiving, having only foundation starters in the frames, they will go up and work in the supers. The section boxes should have full sheets of foundation and one or two in the center should have comb in them.

The parent hive having lost all the field bees will allow the first queen that hatches to destroy the others and there will be no after swarms which is to be desired. Stephen J. Harmeling.

COVE

Mr. B. H. Svendsen of Alki Point put the plumbing in for Mr. Conrad Andersen last week.

Mr. Alden is improving but is not yet able to do any kind of work.

Mr. Fjeldahl is home from the hospital where he has been confined for nearly six weeks. We are glad to see him back with his family.

Mr. and Mrs. I. M. Krokset entertained Mr. and Mrs. Goodchild, Mr. and Mrs. Sundstrom and daughter and Miss Peterson just recently. They motored over from Seattle.

Work in Beulah Park is being rushed. Streets being cleared out, benches, tables, kitchen and a large house with sleeping rooms to accommodate the Epworth League Convention which will be every summer. The season will open on Decoration Day, with an excursion from Seattle and Tacoma, a good time is expected. Beulah Park is very pretty and one that this community can well feel proud of.

Dr. Stockley had a very narrow escape from being gored to death by a bull when he was getting ready to load him into Mr. Rodda's truck, but for the timely action of Mr. F. Seigrist, who pulled the doctor out of the way. The doctor sustained a broken rib and was pretty badly bruised. He is improving, but it will be some time before he will be active again.

Cove M. E. Church is undergoing some alterations. They are raising the belfry so that the bell will be in the open. It will be twenty feet higher when completed, which will be a fine improvement. Mr. Krokset is superintending the building.

COVE IS GOING AHEAD

The following program will be given at Beulah Park on Decoration Day, May 31st.

Two bands will play at both the forenoon and afternoon meetings. There will be choirs from Ballard, Seattle and Tacoma. The famous Family Circle Quartette of college girls will sing. Rev. Hansen of Tacoma, Captains Gabrielsen and Trelstad of Seattle will speak in the forenoon at 11 a. m. Bishop C. J. Larsen will give the address of the day in English at 2 p. m. GENTLE CALL FOR THE HERO

George Was Sent by Grandfather for Seidlitz Powder, but Smelled Powder in War.

Sir Arthur Currie is fond of telling the following story, according to the Rehoboth Sunday Herald.

In the early days of the war an old farmer, living way back on the far western prairies, was feeling rather out of sorts, and sent his eighteen-year-old son, George, to the nearest settlement, ten miles distant, for a seidlitz powder. Arrived there, George promptly enlisted. He fought right through the war, was twice wounded, rose to commissioned rank, and returned to the farm, his breast covered with medals and decorations, including the Victoria cross and the French croix de guerre.

"Well, dad?" concluded the returned hero, after briefly and modestly recounting his exploits.

"Then the old man replied: 'George,' he said, 'wot have ye done with my seidlitz powder?'"

GETTING TOGETHER.

The Patient—You've charged me with six consultations and I've had only two.

The Telepathic Healer—Perhaps you have overlooked the occasions when you were thinking about your trouble and I was thinking about my bill at the same time.

LOW, RAKISH CRAFT, PROBABLY.

Buffalonian—I'm going in for motor boating this summer. Picked up a speeder at a bargain.

Fort Erieite—What capacity? Buffalonian—I should say off-hand about twelve cases and two passengers.—Buffalo Express.

PRECIOUS METALS HOARDED.

As an example of the extent to which silver and gold is being hoarded in China, the incident is reported of an old woman paying for her purchase of a cotton mill with $500,000 worth of gold bars, which she had dug out of its hiding place. It is estimated that, due to the disturbed political conditions and lack of adequate banking facilities throughout China, at least a billion dollars' worth of silver is similarly hoarded, which may partially account for the present exchange situation.

COSTLY ENTERTAINMENT.

"All I ask in the way of diversion," said the man of simple tastes "is a good long walk in the country."

"Of course," sniffed the person who is always envious, "that's well enough for people who are so well fixed that they can afford the shoe leather."

GOT TO BE.

"I suppose an enlisted man can't have a public trial, can he?"
 "Why not?"
 "Because in the nature of things, isn't it a private hearing?"
